

Carnival in Claremont

Bingo tonight opens hamlet festival

The countdown is on. In only a few short hours, Claremont will commence the first of many activities planned this weekend during the hamlet's annual Winter Carnival.

Beginning at 7:30 p.m. today, members of the Lioness Club will host a bingo night at the Community Centre. Interested participants are asked to bring their own chips.

On Thursday, carnival contests will be held at Claremont Public School during the morning, followed by a euchre night in the Senior's Building at 8 p.m. Friday, at 6:30 p.m. residents may gather at the Claremont United Church where they will take part in a torch-light procession, proceeding to the community park. Prizes will also be awarded in a noise-maker competition, scheduled to take place at the same time.

This in turn will be followed by the official opening of festivities by Mr. Claremont Winter Carnival, a Lioness skating party at 7 p.m. in the park, and a teen dance, (admission is $5 per person), at 8 p.m. in the community centre.

Festivities on Saturday will include a pancake breakfast at the United Church from 8 to 9:30 a.m.; a snow sculpture judging at private homes, 9 to 9:30 a.m.; and the Claremont Mile run along Old Brock Road, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

Residents and guests are also invited to witness the Carnival's parade along Old Brock Road, scheduled to begin at 11 a.m. Plaques will be presented for the most original, most humorous and best overall entries.

Or they may choose to visit an open house at the Royal Canadian Legion branch 483 from noon until 2 p.m., and take part in the children's ice events at the park from 1 to 2 p.m., followed by public skating from 2 until 3.

For the energetic crowd, there will be contests, games and sleigh rides in the park from 3 to 4 p.m., followed by a youth versus over-35 hockey game from 4 until 5.

The evening will commence with the Trapper's Ball to be held at the Claremont Four Seasons Country Club at 8 p.m. Admission is $25 per couple. For more ticket information, call 649-2950 or 649-3367.

Sunday will see an Oldtimer's hockey game at 11 a.m. in the park, followed by cross-country skiing and family tobogganing at Claremont Public School, from 1 to 2:30 p.m.

A ski reception, featuring the Czechgrass band, will be held at the Masonic Lodge from 2:30 until 4 p.m. with a bean supper at Claremont Baptist Church ending festivities at 6 p.m.
