Norton fires winner

The first period saw Julie Comedo open the scoring for Bunny's at the 10-minute mark, unassisted. Near the end of the period, Lindsay Upton of George Ross tied the game with the assist going to Shyla Brennan.

The second period was scoreless until Cheryl Norton notched the go-ahead goal for Bunny's with 1:40 remaining in the period.

Despite several scoring chances at both ends of the ice, the third period ended scoreless giving Bunny's Flowers the win.

Squeaker

In Jr. girls House League action, the Kinsmen girls pulled two points ahead of their McNeil rivals in the standings with a 3-2 victory.

Kylie Gornall notched the only first period goal at the 3:06 mark, unassisted, to give the Kinsmen the lead.

After a scoreless second period, McNeil's Colleen Stewart tied the game early in the third, only to have the Kinsmen come back with goals by Bonnie Tait from Amy Ormson, and one from Amanda Devlin from Jodi Denney. Pressure by the McNeil girls resulted in closing the gap to 3-2 with an unassisted goal by Darlene Bagg, but time ran out on the McNeil clubs who were unable to tie the contest.

A bronze medal for Jennifer

Twelve-year-old Jennifer Bunker of Goodwood took home a bronze medal Saturday, placing third in Pre-Novice 'B' Ladies at the Uxbridge Invitational Figure Skating Competition. Jennifer received her award from Dorothy Simpson, the contest's chief accountant. A record 544 skaters took part. —Jim Thomas
