

Century 21 Armour toasts employees

Employees of Century 21 Armour Realty were treated to an evening of dining, dancing and prizes at the company's annual awards banquet.

The banquet was held at La Rosa Restaurant at Woodbine Avenue and Hwy 7 on Saturday, Jan. 30. Employees of both the Markham and Unionville offices and their spouses, totalling 120 people, filled out the room.

Recipients of the million dollar club award (a Century 21 pin) included: Athina Manousos, Rita Gandhu, Yasmin Hassan, Sonia Ellery and Penny Hughes.

Multi-million dollar club members include: Henen Cheung, Maryann Cigan, Pat DaSilva, Ruth Conley, Jane Cotterill, Jeannette Scott, John Procenko and second-time winners, Carole Gough, Joan Kool and Lorraine Harman.

Diamond rings were presented to century club winners including: Steve Kristinovski, Helen Buell, Carolyn Pannell and second-time winners Eric Koo, Wanda Kerr and Barbara Raffensperger. Century club members are those who close more than $3 million during the year.

Barbara Raffensperger also placed in the centurion category for selling more than $5 million in 1987. She was joined by Jennie Cook who closed more than $12.5 million and is ranked third in Canada for the second time and Sylvia Houghton who closed more than $39.5 in 1987 and is first in Canada for the sixth year.

For the sixth year, Century 21 Armour President Doug Meharg commends sales representative Sylvia Houghton on being the top selling agent in the country with more than $39.5 million in sales in 1987.
