Sixteen-year-old Jenny Pritzker is a genuine farmette. She belongs to the 4-H Homemaking and several Agricultural Clubs. She loves animals and hopes to train as a veterinarian following graduation from Stouffville High. Jenny's a student in Grade 11. —Jim Thomas

'Girl Next Door'

Jenny's roots deep in Lemonville soil

By JIM THOMAS
LEMONVILLE — Life in the country is life at its best. Ask Jenny Pritzker. Jenny's activities extend from homemaking to agriculture. Following graduation she hopes to train as a large animal veterinarian. She's our 'Girl Next Door'. Jenny was born at Willowdale but at an early age moved with her parents to Lemonville. She's taken full advantage of everything rural living has to offer. She's a member of the Bethesda 4-H Homemakers plus several clubs related to 4-H Agriculture. She's already completed 21 projects and 'going for 24'. The Pritzker family, that includes Susie, 8; Marcia, 11 and Amy, 13, are surrounded by animals including cows, sheep, rabbits, horses and ducks. Each has a name. While Jenny's roots are firmly embedded in Lemonville soil, she has many other interests. She plays the tuba in the SDSS Sr. Band; has her Grade 7 piano; manages the field hockey and volleyball teams; serves as Class Rep on Students' Council; was selected co-MC for the 1988 Variety Show and enjoys photography, winning several top awards at the 1987 Markham Fair. Jenny hopes to maintain the honors' standing she established in Grade 10. Chemistry's her favorite subject.

Last summer, Jenny, accompanied by Tammy Yake and Susan Carter, enjoyed a 4-H exchange trip to Saskatchewan. She's been to Florida, New York State, Ohio, (Band exchange), and Quebec City, (Grade 7 Orchard Park). Her family, that she describes as "very close", are members in the congregation at Springvale Baptist Church. Jenny has a close circle of friends, an association she appreciates.
