

Winter Carnival fun and frolic

Family affair

The Stouffville winter carnival offered something for every member of the family over the weekend. For youngsters, the games proved to be the big drawing card at the Winter Carnival. Here, Jason Hayes (above) shows off his impressive haul of prizes. The roar of motorcycles also filled the air at the carnival. Terry Barrett (left) turns a corner heading for the finish line in the motorcycle races. The event also included ATV races and a snowpitch exhibition game between the CTR team and the Realty Courier squad.
