

Abortion issue for women only

Dear Editor,
The abortion topic is one of the most controversial issues to hit this community in years.
The letters in your paper, both pro and con, are extremely interesting and well thought out.
Each writer makes good points. I was particularly interested in the reply by Dr. John Button, a well-known and highly respected physician in town.

guards be rendered sterile.
If men want a say in the treatment of women, perhaps women should have a say in the treatment of men. After all, it's the male who initiates the birth of an unwanted child in the first place.

Toll day Saturday

I particularly liked his comment that if a plebiscite was held on the question, men shouldn't be allowed to vote.

I agree wholeheartedly with Dr. Button.

And yet, one continually reads letters of concern(?) from men. You turn on the TV and see men carrying placards in front of the Morgentaler Clinic.

I find this disgusting.
As a woman, I'd suggest all men who engage in sex without safe-

The Stouffville Lions Club will hold its annual Toll Day this Saturday, (Feb. 20).

Members, receptacles in hand, will be out on Main Street between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m.

The Toll Project Chairman is Ross Hetherington.

The club hopes to raise $2,000, all of which will be turned back into the community.

Gael Brotman of Toronto shows her winning painting, Jackal at the Temple. The art instructor was a winner in the media class at Latham Gallery's juried art show held Sunday. She teaches at the Koffler Centre for Arts in North York.
