

Orchard Park students win Lions' oratorical

Marcus Milos (right) and Nicole Liadis both of Stouffville's Orchard Park Public School will advance to the Zone Finals after winning the Stouffville Lions' Effective Speaking Contest.

Marcus and Nicole are congratulated here by Lions member and Orchard Park staff teacher Todd Bright.

It's an election year!

Dear Editor:

Thanks for your editorial, (Tribune issue of Feb. 17) related to the Christian Horizons' residence in Testa Heights. It needed to be said.

It's my opinion, provincial legislation overrides municipal decisions in this regard.

If so, I hope the full force of Queen's Park power is brought to bear on those weak-kneed politicians who would bow to public pressure.

Our council may conjure up all the excuses it wishes. The bottom line is — it's an election year. They're only protecting their own hides, even at the expense of those most deserving.

It's sad.

Sincerely,
(Mrs.) Julienne Hayward,
Toronto Street,
Uxbridge
