

Heart jumps

Amanda Farquharson, 10, a Grade four student at Goodwood Public School jumps rope in the Feb. 17, Skip-A-Thon to raise money for the Heart and Stroke Assoc. So far the school has received about $1,500 with another $3,500 in pledges to come.

Abortion survey biased

Dear Editor:
Re: the Page 1 story, 'Court's Decision On Abortion Creates Shock Wave In Town', Tribune issue, Feb. 3, 1988. I wish to make comment.

As a supporter of the rights of both women and children, I was shocked by your blatantly biased and holier-than-thou lead story on the landmark decision of the Supreme Court of Canada.

Surely, any story that quotes no fewer than ten ministers, (all of them male), should be headlined "creates shocky wave in churches", not the town.

What happened to words like 'fair', 'balanced journalism' and 'the other side of the story'?

As your story stated, the most outspoken pastor voiced his opinions in a 'Letter to the Editor' as I am doing. This is precisely where such comments belong — there or in a church.

Any newspaper's lead story that wraps up with a massive quote: "God have mercy on this country" is a thinly disguised sermon, not journalism.

Such a story can only be justified if it is clearly headlined as being the reaction of the church, and if it's balanced by a matching story stating the response of those who applaud the decision.

Sincerely,
Mary Delaney
