Super skipper

Jeff Hayes puts on a grimace as he skips in the Jump Rope for Heart project at Orchard Park Public School. Children in all grades participated in the fundraiser last Wednesday. Jeff jumps with a ball between his ankles for a trampoline effect. The children skipped two hours each and pledges ranged from $5 to $100. A final figure was unavailable before the school closed for March break.

If Nothing Less Than Success Interests You...

The Executive MBA

You're ready for a new challenge that will bring further business and career success. You're prepared to face the rigorous, intellectually demanding program leading to the Master of Business Administration degree. But time is of the essence. You need an intensive program that will enable you to continue your career while getting your MBA within a reasonable length of time.

Participants in the Executive MBA program attend classes one day per week, alternate Fridays and Saturdays, while continuing their full-time jobs. Participants are experienced, mature professionals. Most have at least eight years experience and an undergraduate degree. They are taught by the best university instructors that Canada has to offer.

Apply now to the 1988 Executive MBA program. For the success you deserve.

Plan to attend an Information Meeting:
Markham: Wednesday, March 30, 1988 at the Chimo Hotel, 7095 Woodbine Ave., 7:30 p.m.
