Canadian 'People's Poet' to perform in Markham

Canadian singer/songwriter Murray McLauchlan will be performing March 25 and 26 at the Markham Theatre.

The Markham Theatre plays host to these performances as part of its Music Series II. Reserved seating tickets are $18 each and are available by calling the Box Office at 479-0201. Show time is 8 p.m.

Born in Paisley, Scotland, Murray McLauchlan emigrated to Canada at the age of five, and continues to reside in Toronto. Murray began playing the guitar at the age of 12, and began his professional recording career in 1971 with "Song From The Street."

After 15 album releases, nine Juno awards, tours of Japan, United States and Canada, Murray has established an international following.

According to a theatre press release, the reviews are favorable from around the world. He has just returned from an Australian performance for the Canadian High Commission.

McLauchlan has been called the People's Poet, folk troubadour, country rocker and pop star. He has turned out hundreds of fine songs that express the Canadian experience.

On July 1, 1985, his CBC TV Special, "Floating Over Canada" aired to good reviews and ratings. Since his last album release, Midnight Blue (1985), there have been TV appearances and a good deal of charity work including "Tears Are Not Enough" for African famine relief.

To be released this April is his first compact disc entitled "Murray McLauchlan's Greatest Hits".

Oakwood Lumber and Millwork Co. Ltd. is sponsoring the Murray McLauchlan concerts.
