

Tribune wins two North American awards

Susan Berry, The Tribune's advertising sales representative has every reason to smile. Her 'Festival of Bells' promotion supplement for Stouffville's downtown merchants last Christmas was recently judged third best in a competition that spanned North America. In addition, Tribune/Economist and Sun classified section was the judges' No. 1 choice. The contest, that attracted entries from across the United States and Canada, is hosted annually by Suburban Newspapers of America. —Jim Thomas

Gormley area churches to host music services

By EVELYN MILSTED
Two special services of sacred music are planned for the Gormley Missionary Church, and Heise Hill Brethren in Christ Church this Sunday, (March 27). At the 11 a.m. service in the Missionary Church, trumpeters Stan and Darlene Elliottson will be the guests. At the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services at Heise Hill, a ladies trio from Port Perry called 'Praise Three' will minister in song.
On Thursday, (March 24), at 7:30 p.m., Mrs. Pat Byer of Stouffville will host a special feature on Microwave Cooking in the Fellowship Hall of Heise Hill Church. The cost is $2 per person.
Mr. Henry Heise is a patient in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill after suffering a slight stroke.
Mrs. Lorna Hogg underwent surgery Monday in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill.
Irene Olszewski is home after several weeks in hospital.
