'Midsummer Mink'

By THE PHANTOM
In my secret hiding place on the balcony of the Uxbridge Music Hall I have been getting very excited as the performance dates for the Uxbridge Players' next production get nearer. As I've told you before, the play, Midsummer Mink is the sequel to the very successful Breath of Spring. Directors today are very different from those I worked with so many years ago. Leonard Hosios, the professional Director, hired through a grant from Theatre Ontario, patiently leads the actors through the various scenes and explains the feelings, expressions and reactions he wants in order to create the desired atmosphere. It is exciting to watch the play taking shape. How I miss being down there on the stage with the actors. I'd love to join Brigadier Rayne, Dame Beatrice Appleby, Lady Alice Miller, Nan, Hattie and Lily. I have been interested to see how the new characters, Mike, Ted, Chris, Madame Chambert and Detective Inspector Wilson have added unusual situations to this modern story with the Robin Hood twist. Don't miss this play. I can promise you a most entertaining evening. Laughter is a splendid tonic. Dates are April 16 and 22 for show only. Tickets are $7 and $6 for seniors. Curtain time 8 p.m. Doors open at 7:15 p.m. Dinner Theatre is on Saturday, April 23. Reception from 6:15 p.m. Dinner at 7 p.m. Curtain 8:30 p.m. Tickets $20. Seats for his performance will also be available in the balcony, $7. Doors will open at 8 p.m. Discount of 10 per cent for groups of 8 or more. Gift certificates are available. For tickets and information call Radio Shack at 852-5255.
