JAN FULLERTON

Jan Fullerton is the President of WEE WATCH. WEE WATCH Private Home Day Care is an innovative company designed to meet the growing need for quality day care, in the Markham/Unionville area. WEE WATCH caters to children 6 weeks and older, full time or part time. Jap places these children into private homes where a trained WEE WATCH provider cares for them. Jan recruits women in the area to be Providers. These women are carefully selected by Jan after an initial screening, and reference checking. All homes are inspected regularly by WEE WATCH and Ontario Ministry of Community and Social Services personnel. WEE WATCH is licensed by the Ministry of Community and Social Services and exceeds all standards set out in the Day Nurseries Act. Jan is continuing to upgrade her skills through enrollment in the Early Childhood Education Program at Seneca College. Jan is a Unionville resident, and the mother of three children, Sarah, Kevin and Scott. She has not only utilized private home day care, but has been a day care Provider in the past herself, and understands what a new mother is going through when she makes the decision to go back to work. WEE WATCH has recently expanded its services to the following areas: Pickering/Ajax, Whitby/Oshawa, Thornhill, Brampton/Bramalea and Etobicoke.

For more information, please contact Jan Fullerton at 479-4274.

JUNE WILLIAMSON

Hello friends and neighbours. Here you are looking at my picture once again. It's so nice to have people say "Aren't you in Real Estate? I saw your picture in the paper." I'm a people person — always have been and after 16 years as a professional entertainer in Britain and Europe, when I came to live in Markham in 1975, the progression to Real Estate was inevitable. After all, it's a people profession.

With over 11 solid busy years of top performance in the Real Estate Industry, including nominations for Toronto Real Estate Board "Salesperson of the Year" for 1986 and 1987 along with many other personal awards and achievements. I will bring to my clients a most sincere and totally devoted personal assistance to all your needs.

Thank You
June Williamson

HALINKA JOHNSTON MAGGIE ELLIOTT

E.T. Home Care has operated in Markham/Unionville for 3 years providing professional care for the home. Specialized services include:

- House and pet sitting
- House and contents videotaping
- Lawn mowing and
- Snow removal

The business was started when it became apparent that there was a need for a local service to provide complete care for homes, and pets while people are away. We maintain a lived in appearance while the homes are vacant. Customers really appreciate the fact that we live in the area and that only the two of us enter the clients homes.

Faith Robinsons School of Cooking

Faith Robinson's Catering & School of Cooking has been operating in Markham for nine of the fifteen years she and her family have lived here. Nineteen different cooking courses are the mainstay of her business. Faith's unique total class participation program includes the students eating the meals which they prepared in class — a technique far from common in schools around the Toronto area.

Faith's diverse services range from lunches, cocktail parties, dinners for companies as well as private parties and weddings. Servicing both private homes or rented halls, Faith caters from 2-200 people.
