Horseshow corrals winners

They were barely old enough to know the difference between a pony and a horse, never mind run a barrel race.

But such is what two area four-year-olds did in just under two minutes during the Boots'n'Saddle Western Horse Club's first summer show April 17.

Courtney Morehouse, riding Queenie was awarded first place honors amidst wild applause from the spectators, followed by Kimberly Weatherstone riding the same mount.

The Pee Wee Barrel Race, a last minute entry on the class docket is only one of three new classes scheduled for this year's season. Also featured will be Western Riding and Reining. Upcoming show dates to be held at High Quest Farms, McCowan Road, include May 1, and 29 - June 12, August 7 and 21.
