Annual Sacred Music Night Churches combine in beautiful music

By KATE GILDERDALE
STOUFFVILLE — The 18th annual Sacred Music night at St. James Presbyterian Church, Friday, was an evening of spiritual harmony, fellowship and beautiful music.

With eight denominations represented, the sanctuary was filled to capacity for a wonderful variety of Christian music, ranging from the superb harmony of The Harvillites to the soothing beauty of saxophone duets played by Ron and Susan McMullen.

The program opened with lively selections by the St. James Children's Choir, ably conducted by Esther Powell.

Eleven-year-old Lawnie Wallace showed once again the power and beauty of her voice in 'Amazing Grace', while the St. James Male Quartet had everyone clapping their hands and tapping their toes to swinging gospel rhythms.

Angela Mayer, a member in the congregation of Bloomington Gospel Church, captivated the audience with a particularly beautiful rendering of 'The Holy City', with Debbie McDermid and Wendy Black providing some very effective harmonizing in 'You Are My Hiding Place'.

Lorne Boadway and Mary Grant chose two lilting country-influenced songs, 'I Walk With His Hand In Mine' and 'How Long Has It Been'.

Lorne Boadway led the congregation in 'Guide Me Oh Thou Great Jehovah', with enthusiastic participation from all sides.

Tribune Editor Jim Thomas

hosted the evening and enjoyed some friendly banter with The Harvillites.

"How long has it been since we started coming here?" enquired a member of the group.

"Eighteen years," replied Jim. "Yes," came the instant response, "it seems that long."

This was an evening when strangers and friends alike were welcomed with warmth and kindness. Providing beautiful music and a true sense of togetherness, it is an event that will surely endure for many years to come.

GRASS GROOMER.

The Kubota B6200 with a mid-mount mower grooms grass with precision. The three-cylinder, 15-horsepower diesel engine is smooth running and quiet, as well as fuel efficient.

The B6200 has other special features, too. A hydraulic position control, three-point hitch, front and rear PTO plus a choice of two- or four-wheel drive.

So put a new Kubota B6200 to work, wherever there's grass growing under your feet.
