Dancer likes jazz best

By JIM THOMAS
Hours of dedicated practice are paying off for 11-year-old Patricia Norton, R.R. 3, Stouffville.

At the recent Lions-sponsored Newmarket Festival, Patricia scored a first in Novice Solo (Jazz), and a second in duet. Her partner was Kristy Woodside of Unionville.

While jazz is her favorite, Patricia also receives instruction in tap and ballet, the latter at The Dance Centre, Stouffville. She takes jazz and tap at Margo's School of Dance, Markham.

Patricia is the daughter of Brian and Irene Norton, Lincolnville. She's a Grade 5 student at St. Mark's School, Stouffville.

Winning Festival awards isn't new for Patricia. Last year, she placed first in the duet category and first this spring in a competition hosted by the British Association of Teachers of Dance (BATD).

It's enjoyable and Patricia thinks it's also practical. Her goal is the National Ballet.

The spring, fall and winter are particularly busy dance times for Patricia. In the summer, she turns to other activities such as tennis, swimming and softball.
