ADVERTISING SALES

Advertising salespeople are hard to find. Good advertising salespeople are even harder. To sell advertising you need to have a natural business instinct to be able to mix well with all types of companies and understand how their products or services are marketed and sold.

To sell advertising you have to be resourceful, tenacious, know when to push and when to back off, have a burning desire to succeed at what you do, and be pleasant to work with so your advertisers actually look forward to doing business with you and your publication.

If you have a track record in sales, are looking for flexible hours, and an opportunity to develop an advertising sales career with York Region's fastest growing business publication, please send resume to:
