Crime Watch

Unionville

Hydro break in

Thieves broke into the Markham Hydro office at 8100 Warden Ave. Saturday night and stole electrical equipment.

Police haven't placed a value on the goods stolen, although they say they were worth more than $1,000.

Milliken

VCR swiped

Two VCRs were stolen from a store at 150 Ferrier St. Sunday night.

Thieves smashed a window to get at the goods police say.

The two machines are worth $870 and the smashed window will cost about $200 to repair.

Wheels stolen

The owner of a 1968 Porsche found himself literally without wheels Sunday night.

Police say thieves stole four wheels and rims from the car, owned by a Willowdale man, while it was parked on Amber St.

Diamond ring taken

Thieves stole a $2,500 diamond ring from an Aldergrove Dr. home Sunday.

Police say the ring was 18 kt. gold with a 1.1 kt. diamond.

Drug bust

Police arrested a man for possession of drugs at the Nags Head Tavern on Woodbine Ave. Friday night. A 19-year-old Markham man was charged with possession of cocaine when police arrested him at 11:15 p.m.

PROCLAMATION

to go toward the high intensity training of athletes during winter and spring. Don Daynard's original "Remember When Band" will perform nostalgic rock and roll, along with D.J. Brendan Wilson.

There will be one major door prize given away, a silent auction, buffet and cash bar. Tickets are $17.50 per person and are available from the following merchants: Markham - Puddleducks, Trendsetter and Markham Photo. Unionville - Queen's Pantry. Thornhill - Pat's Pet Shop.

Newcomers

Markham/Unionville Newcomers will host their Annual Car Rally on Saturday, June 5 beginning at 5:30 p.m. A buffet dinner will follow the rally at Deer Park Inn. Tickets are $45 per couple, $25 for a single. For further info and tickets call Jennifer Deacon at 479-23.

WINNING ARTIST: Stouffville resident Dave Clubine was the winner of a logo contest for the Unionville Home Society. His stylized bird was chosen from 48 entries. It reflects the society's mission of continuing support of services for seniors. It also represents the care and freedom that can be experienced by seniors through the home society's motto, "While we live, let us live." He's presented with a cheque for $150 from Susanne Pennington, chairman of the logo committee for the Unionville Home Society. The runners up were Doug Wheeler who won $100 and Norbert Lisinski who received a prize of $50.

The Great Toogood Pond TREASURE HUNT

JUNE 4th AT FESTIVAL

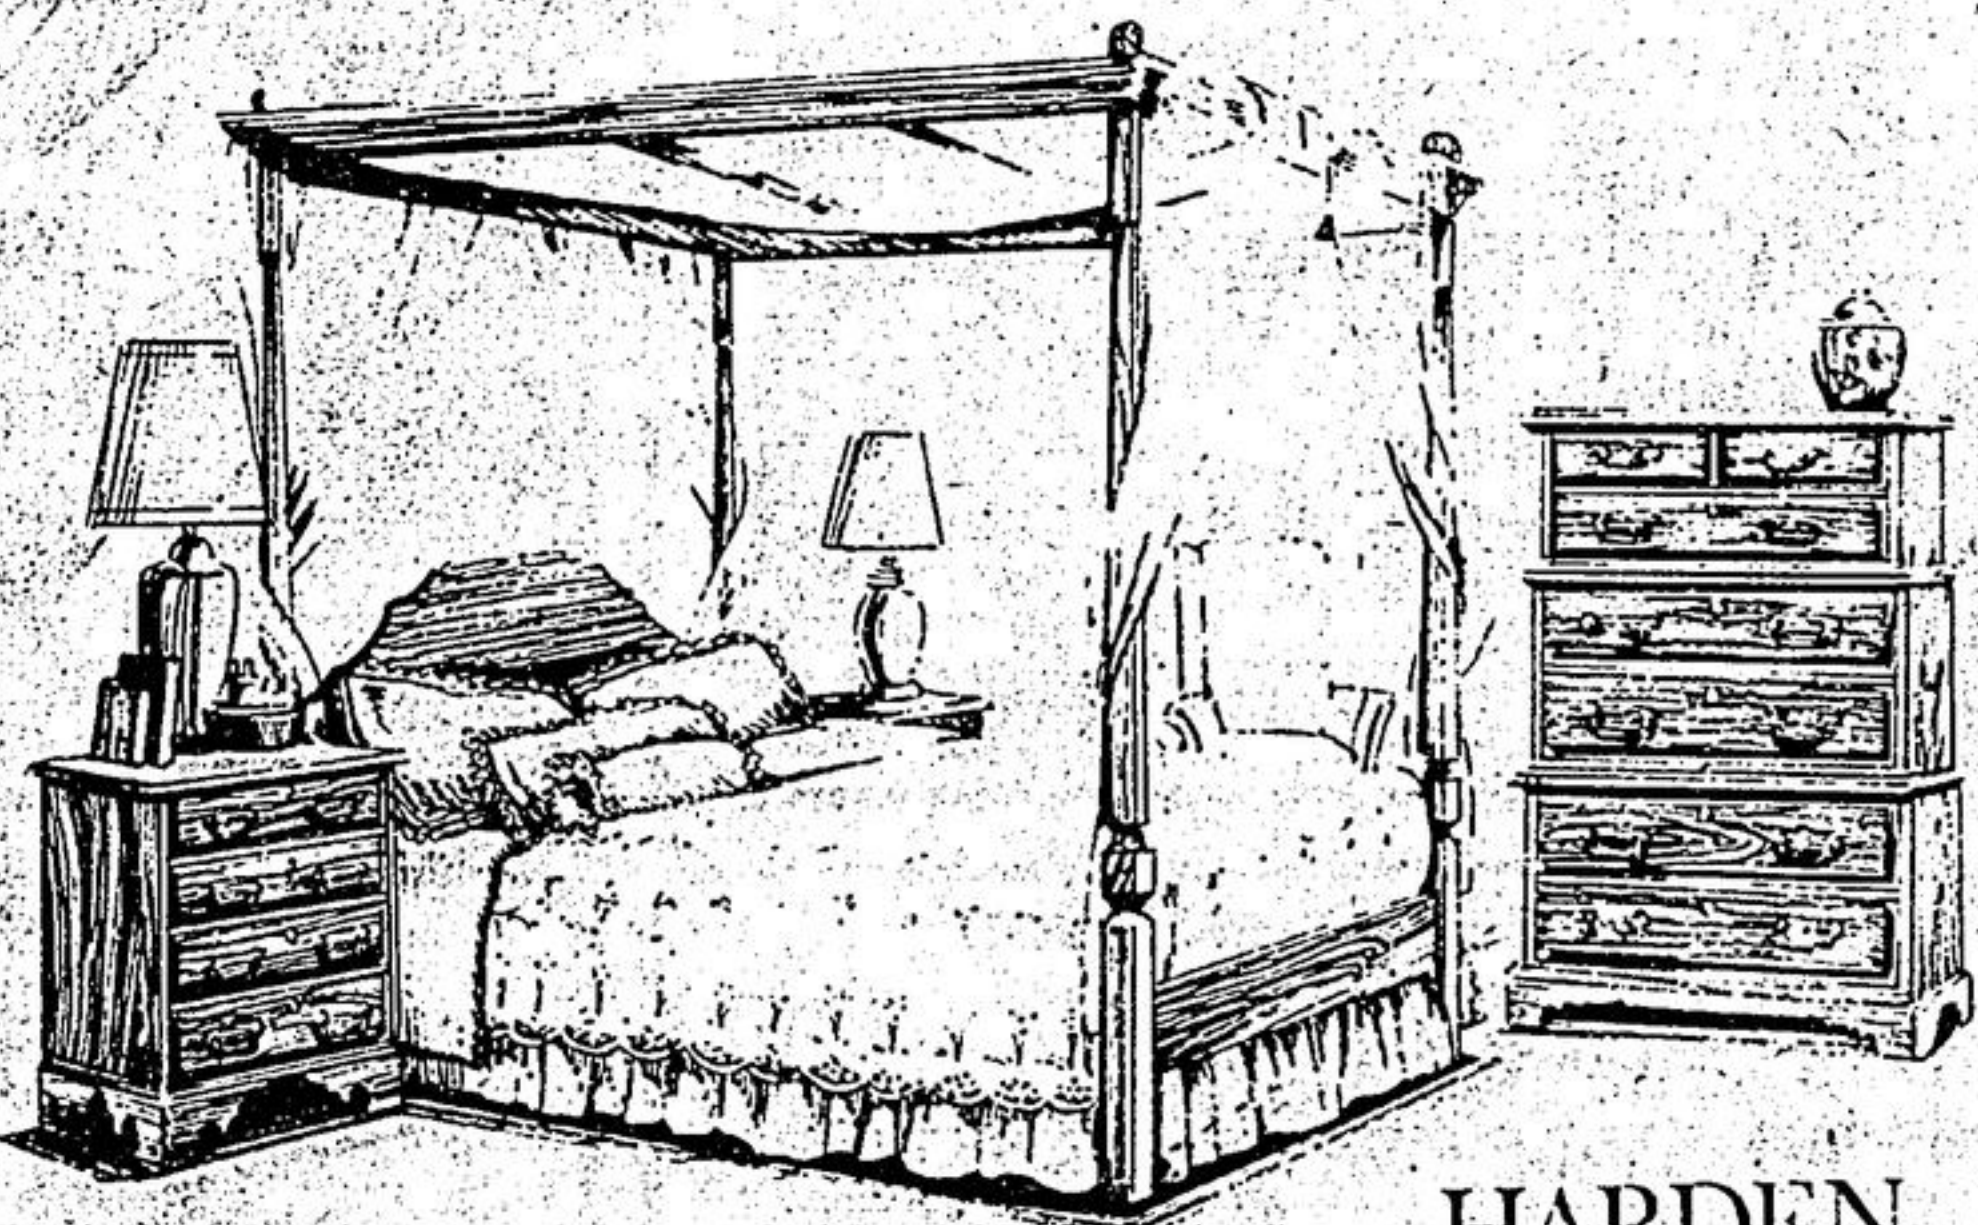

CLUE # 4

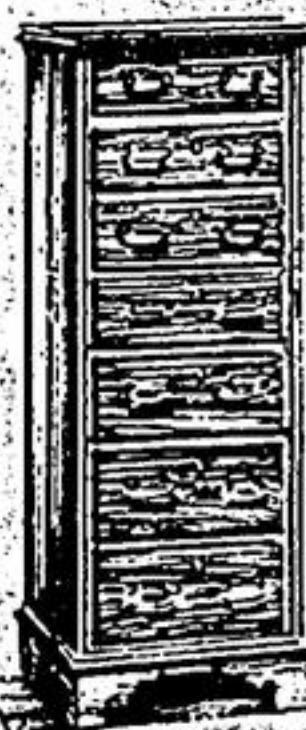

If I start from seven years back,
And stare right in between,
Then follow along that visual track,
'Til I'm at where I've just seen.
I'll find a spot to make this clue fit.
I'll know it when I don't find it!
