Razzmatazz needed for coming Sesqui Festival

By LAURI TOWATA-ROY
Get out your flags, banners and streamers. Plant some flowers and decorate your house for the Sesqui festival.

On the morning of June 11 the judges will be touring around town to view the outcome of your endeavors. Prizes will be awarded that afternoon at the baseball park. If you wish to ensure your house is judged, please call Karsten Smith. Let's see some Claremont finery.

Don't forget to join Herbie the Clown at Chip and Dale's open house Saturday at 10 a.m.

House tour tickets are still available for Sunday, June 5. Tickets are available at Gillespie Real Estate or from Andrea Graham, phone 649-2604.

The Sesqui Committee are looking for volunteers for various jobs. We could use parade marshalls to help along the parade route, a walking tour guide, and people to help out around the park. How about giving one or two hours of your time to help make this 150th celebration a memorable occasion? Please call Lauri Towata at 649-2296 or 649-2618.

The Legion Ladies Auxiliary held a Sesquicentennial euchre tournament and 50-50 draw May 19 at the Legion, with the $75 raised being turned over to the Sesqui Committee.

Winners were: Ladies — 1st Doris Wilson; 2nd Maud Anderson; 3rd Dorothy Britton; ladies low; Joan Postill; lone hand, Gail Zampaloni. Men — 1st Gord Gauslin; 2nd Aggie Ferguson; 3rd Bill Hammond; men's low, Alf Hammond; lone hand, Art Parratt. Winner of the 50-50 draw was Ralph Norton.

The Claremont Lioness Club are holding their annual Strawberry Social on Sunday, June 19. The home-made luncheon buffet begins at 12:30 p.m. Since there is only one sitting we would ask that you buy your tickets in advance. The ladies are also selling tickets to win a white wicker chair, with the draw being held at the social. Please see Norrine Hill or any other Lioness for tickets and further information.

The Claremont Lions are once again providing a shuttle bus service to the Hawaii Dance and Draw. The bus will be going around town, picking up party goers and driving them to the Uxbridge Arena. The bus will also take you back to town. Please call either Frank Hill at 649-2653 or Bob Tran at 649-2832 for tickets and information.

The Royal Canadian Legion Branch 483 and their Ladies Auxiliary held a joint installation of officers for 1988-89. Legion officers are President Cec McMordie, 1st Vice-President Frank Hendy, 2nd Vice-President Lenora McKenzie, Past President Dave Grainger, Chaplain Louise Barrie, Secretary Jean McMordie, Treasurer Eileen Ball, Sergeant-at-arms Jack Bates, Executives Frank Hendy and Valerie Budd, Sports Chairman Lenora McKenzie.

For the auxiliary, officers are President Valerie Budd, 1st Vice-President Connie Stewart, 2nd Vice-President Eileen Ball, Secretary Rene Rennie, Treasurer Jean Bradshaw, Sergeant-at-arms Kim Budd, Executives Rowena Lehman, Nancy Lehman and Marion Wood. After the official details were dealt with, everyone enjoyed a pot luck lunch provided by the Ladies Auxiliary.

At Scotiabank,
the privileges of age start when you're as young as 59.

SCOTIA

If you're banking somewhere else, you'll probably have to wait until you're 60 to enjoy the benefits that Scotia Plus offers at 59.

It's worth thinking about.

Scotia Plus gives you a long list of free services that you can get with any Scotiabank account. And, you can also earn 1/2% bonus interest above our normal rates on both Daily Interest and Blue Chip Savings Accounts.

There's no charge for chequing and withdrawals*, personalized cheques, pre-authorized payments, utility bill payments normally accepted at Scotiabank, transfers between accounts, post-dated cheques, stop payments or certified cheques.

There's no sales commission on travellers cheques, bank drafts or money orders. Safety Deposit Boxes (where available) and Safekeeping Services are offered at a discount off our usual charges. Foreign currency cheques are processed free.

Interest can be credited monthly - with no interest rate reduction - on Term Deposits of $5,000 or more with terms of one year or more.

Ask how you can get all these Scotia Plus benefits at any Scotiabank branch - a year or so before you reach 60.

*Applies to all accounts except The Gain Plan Investment Savings Account.
