Band presidents strike harmonious chord

Olean Band President Future U.S. marine

STOUFFVILLE — Seventeen-year-old Peter Gilroy is every parents' pride and joy. He's handsome, neat, well-mannered and talented. He's the percussion mainstay of the Olean High School Band from Olean, New York. He's also the band president. Last week, this sixty-member instrumental group were Stouffville's guests. A concert was staged in the SDSS gymnasium. It was Peter's second visit here, and his last. He's applied for enrollment in the United States Marine Corps Band. If successful, he'll spend the next four years at a Marine base in Virginia. He's looking forward to the challenge. Peter thinks the students of SDSS display excellent school spirit. He's extremely critical of those young people who rely on alcohol as a 'crutch', a practice that's all too prevalent in the U.S., he says.

Peter has his own percussion equipment. While self-taught, he's loud in his praise of David Johnson, the Olean band director. Extra-curricular interests include football and golf. The concert, Wednesday, featured the Olean Sr. Band and the Olean Jazz Band. At the program's conclusion, both Mr. Johnston and SDSS band director Peter Samuelson shared the podium. Mr. Samuelson also played the trumpet in one of the Olean selections. The concert was brought to a fitting conclusion with the number 'We Are The World', featuring the combined bands from Olean and Stouffville. Both Mr. Johnston and Mr. Samuelson thanked the host parents for their co-operation, "making the band exchange possible," Mr. Samuelson said.

Alcohol a crutch

Dear Editor: It's regrettable some people require a 'crutch' in order to enjoy themselves. Do they know or even care about the problems they cause? Rather than cancel future dances as 'Principal' Bright of SDSS has threatened, I think he should suspend the offending students from school for a period of one week and ban them from all dances for life. I consider it unfair that 'straight' students should be penalized because of problems caused by a few. Sincerely, (Mrs.) Freda Flynn, Geoffrey Crescent, Stouffville
