Late Jim Oldham Area resident all his life

The Stouffville community was saddened; May 19, when news was received of the passing in Scarborough Centenary Hospital of James Oldham, long-time area resident.

He was 75. Mr. Oldham had resided for a brief period in Parkview Home. His death followed a courageous struggle with declining health over the past year.

Jim will be sadly missed by his wife, the former Alma Baker; his four children, Jim Jr., of Vancouver; Joan Avery of Ottawa; Wayne and David both of Stouffville. He was also deeply loved by his nine grandchildren and one sister, Lulu Feasby, a resident of Uxbridge.

Jim was highly respected and loved by his many friends and neighbors.

For many years, he farmed at Ringwood where all his children attended school. He served as a school trustee.

For the past 25 years, Mr. and Mrs. Oldham lived in the house he helped build on the Baker farm near Hwy. 48.

Jim's two great loves were God and his family. He was a faithful member and worker in the congregation of Baker Hill Baptist Church where, over the years he served as Sunday School superintendent and a Sunday School teacher. He was also a church deacon.

The service, arranged through the O'Neill Funeral Home, was held in Baker Hill Baptist Church with Pastor Dana Struve in charge assisted by former pastor Jim Shantz. Dr. W.S. Whitcombe brought the message. Dr. Whitcombe recalled the happy occasion, 50 years ago, when he conducted the marriage of Jim and Alma in the same Baker Hill Church.

Pall-bearers were three grandsons — Brian Avery, Steve Oldham and Jeff Oldham; Harry Simpson, Jim Shantz and John Carter.

Interment was made at Baker Hill Cemetery.

Chimes appeal

Except perhaps for the late Sunday morning snoozers, the chimes at Stouffville United Church are appreciated by (almost) everyone. Keep them ringing!

Interested?

Town engineer Paul Whitehouse is busier than a one-armed paper hanger. Still, he took time out to measure the rainfall in Stouffville during the big storm of May 16. His report — 1.7 inches.

CN project

After witnessing the cost to GO-Transit of re-building the parking lot east of the Stouffville tracks, CN will undoubtedly take a long hard look at improving the right-of-way west of the rail line, leading to Stouffville Feeds and the Co-op. If this street gets much worse, all patrons will have to go out and purchase Blazers, Broncos and Ram Chargers.

Is it true?

Remember Rev. Phil Poole, pastor to the congregation of Christ Church (Anglican) Stouffville? Those who knew him will never forget. I've been told (unofficially) he's leaving the staff of Trinity Boys' College, Cobourg. Is it true? If anyone knows (for sure), please let me know.

On the mend

Good to hear Regional Chairman Eldred King's on the mend after back surgery. Anxious to get back on the throne I'm told. Wife Beulah's not adverse to giving up the milk stool either.

Small world

When Mayor Fran Sainsbury attended a symposium on Environmental and Occupational Health at the Park Plaza Hotel, Toronto, recently, who should be seated in the same room but Glenn Ross Thompson, formerly of Stouffville and now of Mississauga. Glenn, a deputy minister, once rode with Mayor Fran in the same car to Toronto Teachers' College. That was more than thirty years ago. The driver was Harry Hunt who later became principal of Ballantrae Public School. It's a small world.

Life begins!

While Terri Surman, Manitoba Street, Stouffville, wasn't telling the world of her upcoming 40th birthday, her friends weren't telling her much either. On Thursday (May 26) she was sequestered somewhere in Metro while plans for a gala homecoming were taking place. She was returned blindfolded to a party that included more than 80 guests. Among the well-wishers was her father, Fred Howie from the East Coast. Not wishing to be a free-loader, Mr. Howie brought along 300 lobsters, fresh from the Atlantic Ocean. Also in attendance was Loretta Loveridge, an auctioneer friend of Terri's and a fellow graduate from auction college in Mason, Illinois. Terri claims she had so much fun she plans to stay 40 the rest of her life.

Makes sense

June, July and August have been designated as Sport Shirt Months at Stouffville United Church. You're invited to dress in comfortable summer clothing. The May 29 bulletin reads: This, we presume, also includes the minister. By the way, for members and adherents who missed it, service time at the U.C. switches to 10 a.m., Sunday July 12.

Watch found

A woman's gold Seiko wrist watch was found recently on Main Street, Stouffville, and turned in to The Tribune Office. The owner may reclaim her property any time between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Student artist

JoAnn Burkholder, Westlawn Crescent, Stouffville, is the artist responsible for The Tribune's 100th anniversary window. JoAnn's been a placement student at our newspaper since September. Her excellent window work has prompted much favorable comment.

Try it!

If you're the kind of person who enjoys having fun with figures, try this one. Take your house number and double it. Add five. Multiply by fifty. Add your age (the number of days in a year) and subtract 615. The last two figures will be your age and the others will be your house number. Yes, I tried it and it works! The exercise was included in the May 22 bulletin of Stouffville Missionary Church.

Had a ball!

One man's (woman's) loss is another man's (woman's) gain. Ruth Rodanz lives directly across the road (Hwy. 48) from Spring Lakes Golf and Country Club, Ringwood. On occasions, errant duffers are so off target, their drives fend up on Fred and Ruth's lawn. Ruth being a practical person, saved up all the balls and put them up for grabs at the United Church Women's Bake Sale, May 21. Oddly enough, Mac Frost, owner of Spring Lakes, was one of the Bake Sale patrons. Naturally, he spotted the display and questioned their origin. He couldn't believe any of his member pros could be so erratic. But Ruth had the evidence.

For $10.95

My neighbor Vic and Gertrude Little, 389 Rupert Avenue, Stouffville, recently placed a hummingbird feeder outside their living room window. It contains a sweet-tasting formula these birds love. Last week, the first one arrived, darted in for a drink and left. Now that the word's out, others are sure to arrive. Hummingbird feeders are available at Stouffville's Card's Hardware for $10.99. When I last checked, only one remained with more on order. It's a unique idea that works.

Many lovely ladies and handsome gentlemen participated in the wedding promenade at Parkview Home, Friday. However, not looked overlier than Mrs. Minerva Brown, seated in the audience. Mrs. Brown was beautiful in a floor-length dress that attracted much attention. Married 61 years and seven months, she's the proud mother of four, grandmother of 14 and great-grandmother of 24. She celebrated her 90th birthday, May 11. Congratulations!

Perfect site

Parklane Nurseries, Stouffville Road east of Gormley, is rapidly becoming one of this area's favorite locations for wedding photos. And no wonder. It's one of this area's most beautiful locations. Casey van Maris, Parklane's general owner provides this on-site service at no charge. All he asks is some advance notice. The number to call is 887-5851.
