Kim plans teaching career

By JIM THOMAS
Although graduation's a few years away, Kimberley Pagliaro already has her mind made up concerning a career.
Teaching school's her chosen profession. She sounds definite. While the decision's her own, Kim comes by the interest honestly. Her mother's also a teacher. Kim's our 'Girl Next Door.'
Born on the Ninth Line of Markham, Kim's one of four in the family of Larry and Margaret Pagliaro, R.R. 1, Stouffville. She has three brothers, Glenn of Ravenshoe; Paul in Stouffville and Robert at home.

Kim Pagliaro is a student attending Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. Following graduation, she plans to enroll at university and later Teachers' College. Kim's our 'Girl Next Door.'

Following graduation from Dickson's Hill, Kim had a choice of three high schools, but selected SDSS. She's glad she did despite the six mile bus ride every morning and afternoon.

Kim's an enthusiastic athlete with downhill skiing, basketball and cross-country her favorites. She was winner of Female Athlete of the Year award in Grade 8 at Dickson's Hill.

Kim expresses a great love for her late Aunt Jessie who passed away last December at age 91. She lived at Ravenshoe. She's also close to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Masters, Glad Park Avenue, Stouffville.

Kim appreciates the fact a knowledge of piano will prove beneficial in teaching years ahead. She has her Grade 4, Royal Conservatory. Cathy Moran, Elm Road, Stouffville, is her teacher. Kim's enjoyed several exciting family trips coast-to-coast across Canada and to the Yukon. Some day she hopes to visit Italy. What's lacking at Stouffville High? Kim answers without hesitation - a cinder track.

"We're continually being asked to participate in track but there's nothing to participate on," she says. She considers this a top priority.
