

Mayes celebrate 50th Anniversary

By MARJORIE WOODLAND
Many friends and family gathered Sunday to extend best wishes and congratulations to Al-ger and Dorothy Maye. It was their 50th wedding anniversary. Alaine, Shirley, Iris and Sam were all present, as were most of their 11 grandchildren. The reception was held at the Ballantrae Community Centre which was attractively decorated for the occasion.

Nearly 200 guests remained for the five o'clock dinner. Other friends were present from Woodstock, London and Alberta. Their attendants Verna Bunker of Min-den and Percy Yake of Bancroft were present to complete the wedding party. The Crossover Gospel Musical Group provided entertainment as well as Ivan and Dorothy Bell who sang duet numbers. Mrs. Muriel Hemmings gave suitable read-ings, some of which were her own composition. Pastor Gawa spoke words of admonition and en-couragement.

A reminder to the ladies that the next Morning Coffee Club meet-ing is Friday at the Community Centre. A 50th Wedding Anniversary celebration will be featured.

Marjorie Mason will present "Let's Get Growing," there will be a Rainbow of musical talent and the guest speaker is to be Lois Ryder, a grandmother from Par-ry Sound. You will receive a warm welcome. Admission is $3. Free babysitting is available.

A "Cousins" kitchen shower was held on Sunday afternoon at the home of Arnold and Betty Maye for bride-to-be Joanne Maye, who is the daughter of the late Elmer Maye and Mrs. Mar-lene McKnight.

Many lovely kitchen gifts were received as well as a "Favorite Recipies" file compiled by cousins Beth Drake and Darlene Maye.
