

Grandma Bell's jubilation spans two towns

Markham Mayor Carole Bell has fears and trepidations when it comes to a population explosion in Stouffville. However, she was overjoyed when the town grew by one May 31. Daughter Jill (right), and son-in-law Stephen George, Linden Lane, Stouffville, welcomed an 8 lb., 9 oz. baby boy, May 31 at York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill. His name is Corey. Four days earlier, (May 27), daughter Jay, (left), and son-in-law Michael Bomberly, Bridle Trail, Unionville, welcomed a 7 lb., 13 oz. baby girl, also at York Central Hospital. Her name is Emma. Stephen and Jill have a daughter Robyn, age one. Michael and Jay have a daughter Megan, four. "My sister moved out and I moved in," Jill told The Tribune explaining how she took over Jay's bed as soon as she left.
