Students are stepping back in time

Students from Grades 1-8 had a chance to experience the pioneer lifestyle and dress in period costume Friday at Pickering Museum Village in Greenwood. Museum volunteer Patricia Pegg

(above) demonstrates an old-time method of making clothes on a weaving loom. Observing are Grade 4 students Crystal Annis (left) and Brendon Smith. — Chris Garbutt
