

Late Charles Redshaw His life-long goal was serving others

CLAREMONT — The Claremont community lost a well-known and highly respected resident June 10 in the passing of Charles Redshaw in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto.

Mr. Redshaw had been in ill health close to nine years. He suffered from emphysema, a condition worsened by pneumonia. In later years he was bothered by arthritis and forced to move about on crutches.

Mr. Redshaw was a patient first at Ajax-Pickering Hospital, then in St. Michael's where he died.

His presence was missed at the Sesquicentennial celebrations, June 11 and 12.

Born in Uxbridge Twp., the son of Robert and Minnie (DeRusha) Redshaw, he left school at an early age to help his father on the farm. Later, he worked at the ammunition plant in Ajax.

After moving to Claremont, he was an employe on the staff of Chas. Cooper Ltd. He became well known to the farming community since his work involved repairs to tractors and implements.

For nine years, he was a custodian at Claremont Public School. He was 'Mr. Redshaw' to all the children as well as members of staff.

'Charlie', as he was known to a wide circle of friends, was a familiar figure at the local park. He enjoyed softball and hockey. As a young man, he played a lot of football.

Mr. Redshaw was a devoted husband, father and grandfather. Besides his wife, the former Irene Lynn, he's survived by three sons, Ken of Claremont; Brian in Stouffville and Fred of Alliston; one daughter Marie (Mrs. Ron Hedges) of Claremont and four grandchildren.

A sister Rowena (Mrs. Jack Lehman) resides in Claremont. He was predeceased by a brother Ross and a sister Vyla (Mrs. Talbert Evans).

Plan teen dances

STOUFFVILLE — The Whitchurch-Stouffville Recreation Department is finalizing details for teen dances in Latham Hall this summer.

Three are planned, one each month during June, July and August.

The first is June 29 as part of the kickoff for the Strawberry Festival.

Music will be provided by Disc Jockey's Unlimited, Toronto. The dances will begin at 7:30 and conclude at 10:30.

"They'll be operated and supervised by the Recreation Department," Mr. Arnott said. Volunteers will assist as chaperones.

The July and August dates are still to be set.

Dad-grandad remembered

Little Jessica Klonowski doesn't remember her grandfather. But she accompanied her father to the Stouffville Cemetery for the placing of a wreath at the grave site of Joseph Klonowski, Vandorf Road, Whitchurch-

Stouffville. Mr. Klonowski died Nov. 25, 1985. Son Kaz and family reside on Brock Street, Uxbridge. Sunday was Stouffville's annual Decoration Day service.

Library appointment

STOUFFVILLE — The Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library has a new Information Services Librarian.

Catherine Whittaker is a native of St. John, New Brunswick. For a period of four years, she was an assistant librarian at the University of New Brunswick. This experience led her to take a course at the University of Western Ontario, London where she obtained a Degree in Library Sciences.

After hearing about the opening on the library staff in Stouffville, she applied. It was 'love at first sight'. She was hired in mid-May.

"I'm doing a little bit of everything at the moment," says Catherine. She's encouraged by the fact others on staff are open to suggestions and ideas; also that there are plans for expansion in the not-too-distant future.

After only a few days on the job, Catherine's filled with enthusiasm for her position, her colleagues and her home.

Those folks who've had occasion to meet her readily agree "she's an excellent addition to an excellent facility."
