

A fond farewell for high school writer

Well, I guess this is it — I can hardly believe that this is my last column.
It doesn't seem like it was that long ago that I was asking myself, "How do you write a newspaper article?" Since that time, I've learned a great deal about writing articles and SDSS. At this point, I think it is appropriate to thank a few people who have helped along the way.

late you. They are truly the greatest.

How could any farewell be complete without saying thanks to one's friends? Thank you — all of my friends. You have made Grade 13 a memorable year, and I'll be looking forward to 1988.

And of course, there are some who deserve special mention: Scott Couperthwaite, Craig Thompson, Sean Souter, Jeffrey Wallis, Imran Rasul and James Baggs.

You guys have been like brothers to me — the good times and the memories we have shared will never be forgotten. Thanks guys.

And my family deserves thanks — Mom and Rick for putting up with the typewriter at midnight on Sunday, Kathy and B.B. for understanding my outrageous procrastination, etc...

Perhaps, Mr. Thomas deserves the largest thanks of all. Jim has put up with all my typos, all my grammatical errors and all my last-minute articles.

And last, thank you my dear readers. It has been my privilege and pleasure to be your SDSS Reporter for these past two years.

And that's all he wrote, folks!

First, I'd like to thank Nevil Hodgson, who recommended me to Tribune Editor Jim Thomas for the position of SDSS reporter two years ago.

Mr. Hodgson is one of SDSS's finest teachers, and has been a constant source of encouragement and inspiration throughout my high school career.

Thank you, Mr. Hodgson. I will sorely miss your leadership and friendship next year.

I'd also like to thank other members of SDSS's staff who have made my years at Stouffville High special: Rick Dewell, Ron Eldridge, Jim Fletcher, Don Hamilton, Lin Jones, Adel Kamel, Jim Rehill and L. Wideman. All of these gentlemen are fantastic teachers.

Should you or your children have the privilege of being their students — I can only congratulate you.

Morgans at Fairgrounds

The annual Morgan Horse Championship is scheduled for Markham Fairgrounds, July 2 and 3. Competition begins at 9 a.m. both days. It's the largest show of its breed in Ontario, drawing entries from all across the province as well as Quebec and parts of the United States. Exhibitors from this area will include — Gord and Jo Joyce, R.R. 1, Unionville; Don and Linda Ross, Markham; Sylvia Stringer, Stouffville; John and Michelle Garbutt, Stouffville; and Sheri Wilson also of Stouffville.

Mickey on hand

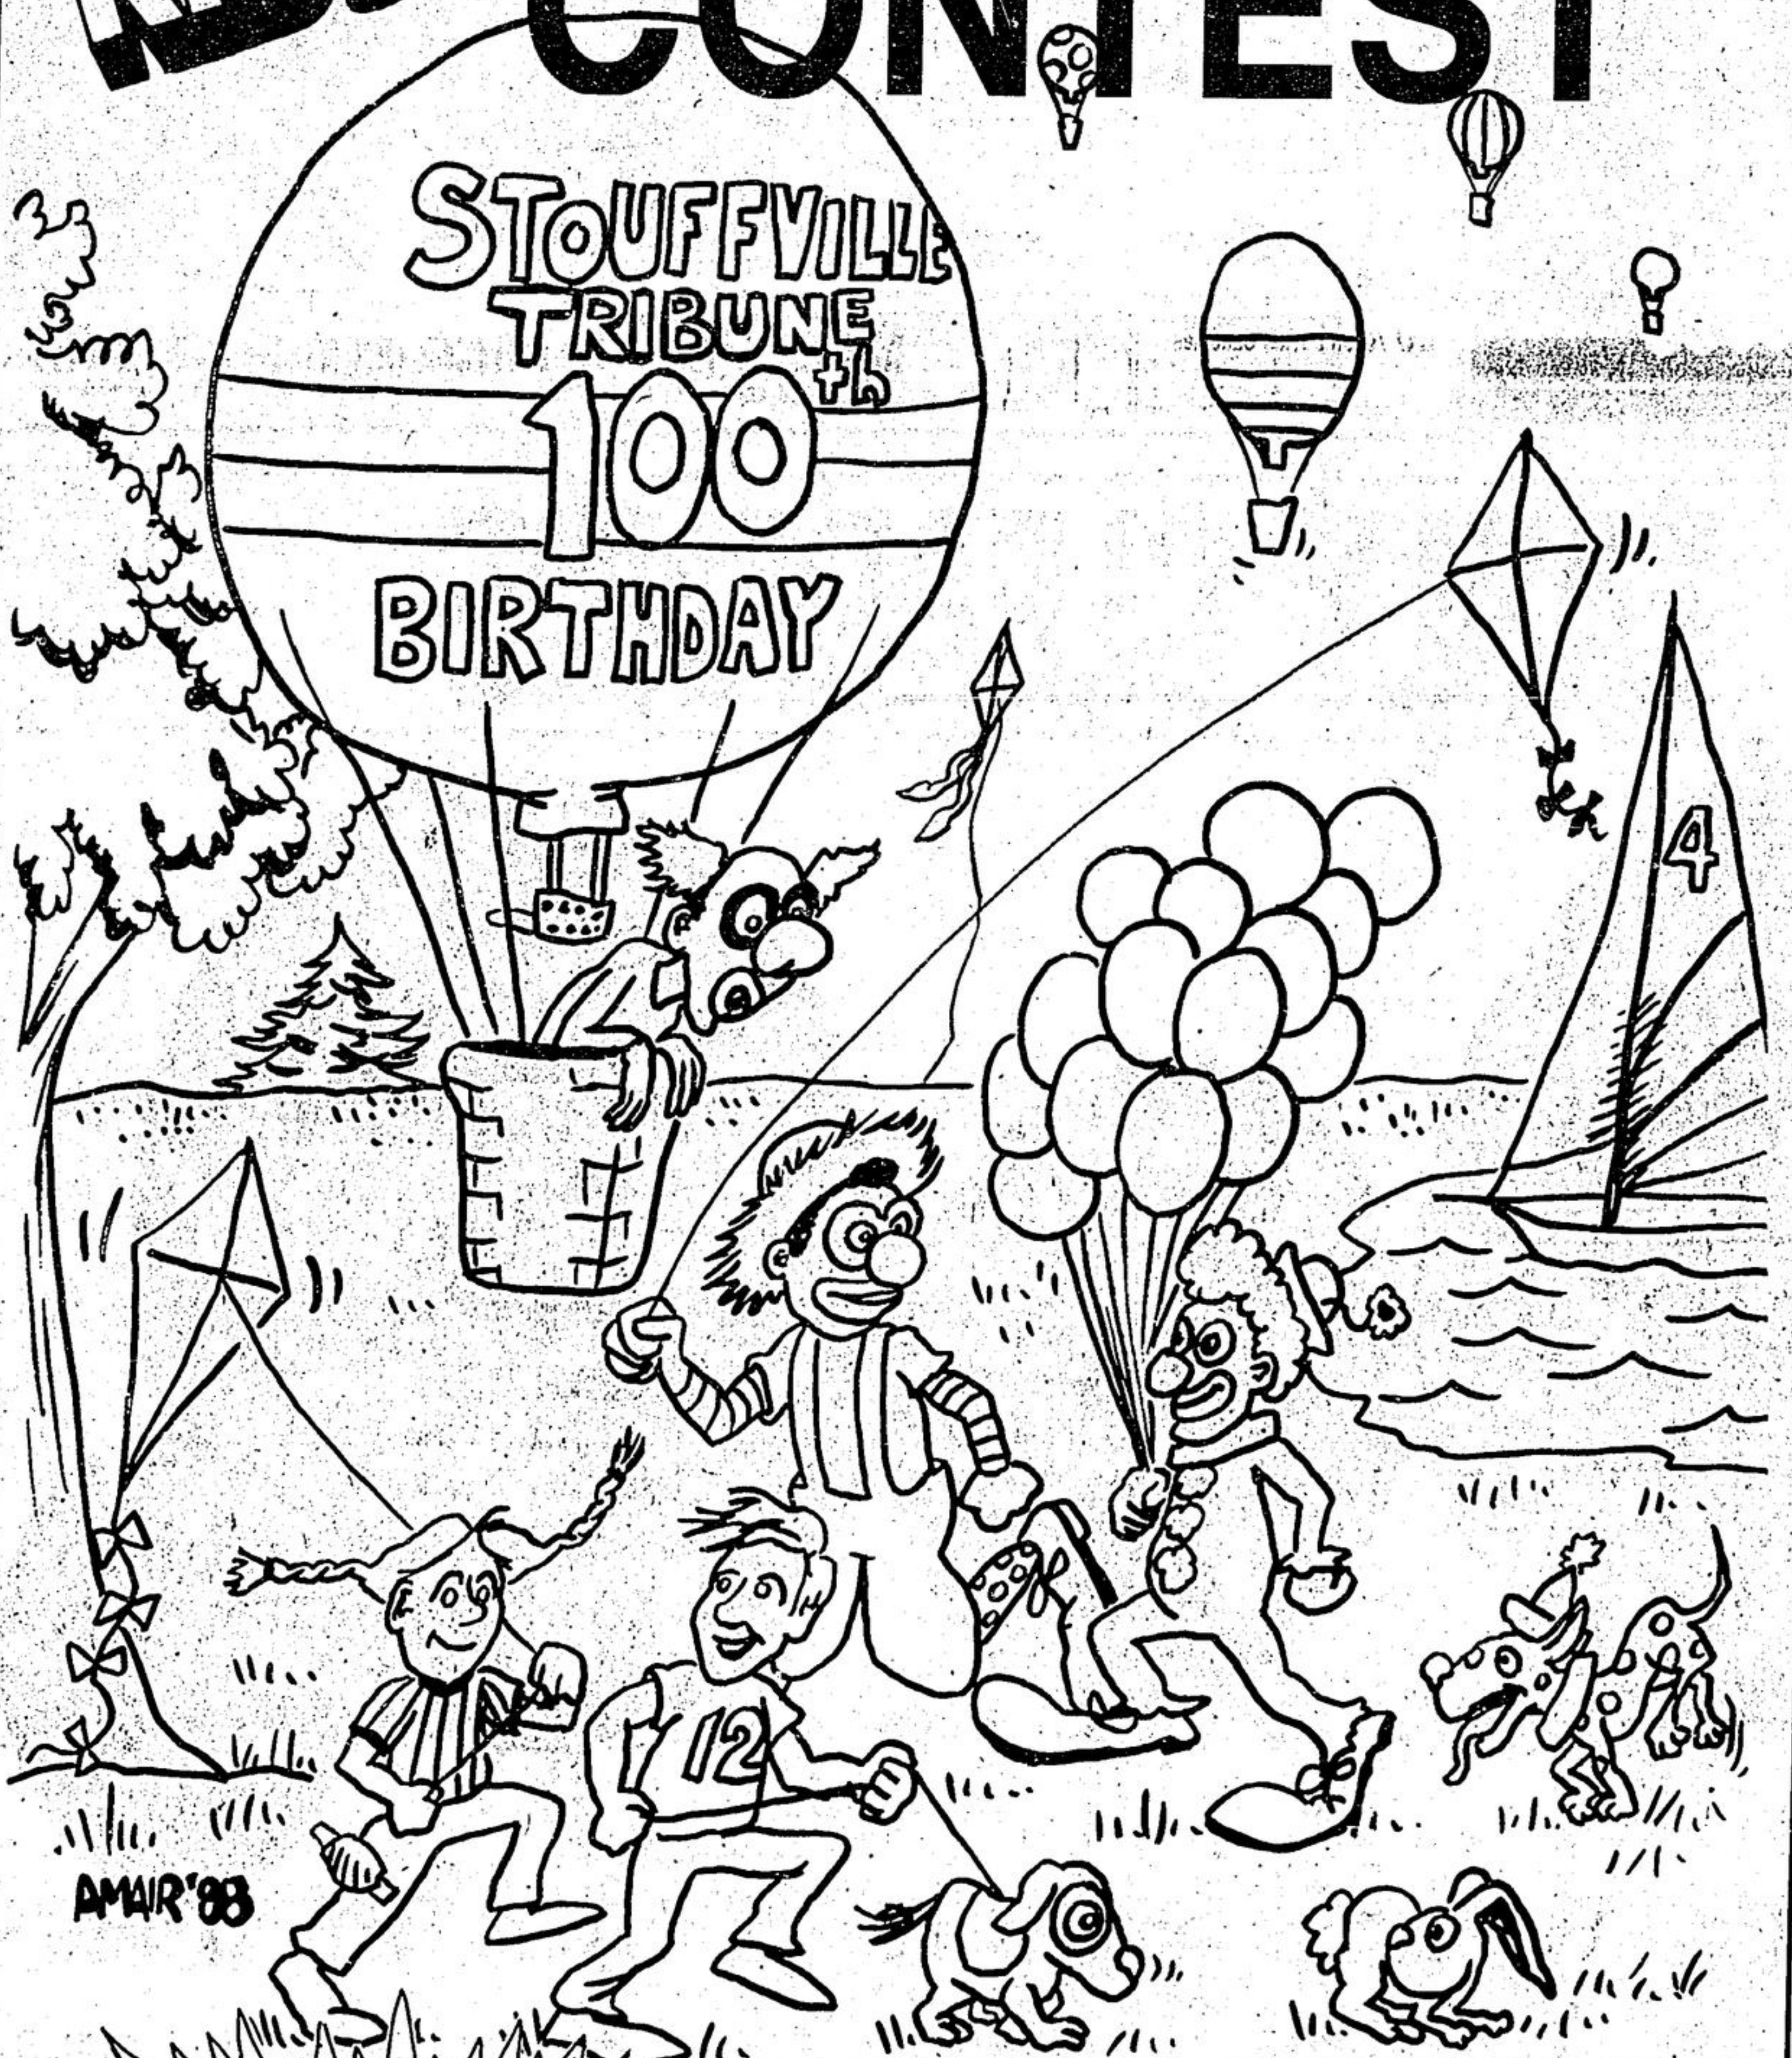

Mickey Mouse (13-year-old Brandi Walters) was on hand Saturday for the opening of Video Mania in Stouffville. Mickey was joined by a clown Sheri

Blundell in distributing flyers for the new establishment.
