Seniors' discount cards in demand

Seniors' discount cards were made available (officially) for a first time Thursday through Home Support Services at Stouffville's Silver Jubilee Club. The demand was great as dozens of residents 'signed up' including Harold Powell, Ninth Line North. The recording secretary is Ginny Burrow.

Family his first love

The death of George Henry Harman, June 16, at Scarborough Grace Hospital has left a deep gap in the lives of his large and loving family and many friends.

Mr. Harman was born in Whitchurch Twp., Sept. 5, 1900 and lived in the area all his life.

On Nov. 1, 1922, he married Flossie Fockler. The couple raised twelve children.

Mrs. Harman predeceased her husband, Jan. 21, 1974. Mr. Harman remarried in 1978. Wife Lillian survives.

Mr. Harman's initial occupation was farming. However, for a period of 40 years, he was a specialist in plumbing and heating.

Mr. Harman was a faithful Conservative Party worker many years, but first and foremost he was a devoted family man with eight daughters, four sons, 37 grandchildren, 42 great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

Gardening and travelling were favorite pastimes. He and wife Flossie enjoyed trips that took them coast-to-coast across Canada. Later, he and wife Lillian spent six winters in Florida. On his 79th birthday, a family picnic was arranged with close to 110 people attending. This gathering became an annual event with Mr. Harman the heart and soul of the reunion.

Besides wife Lillian, Mr. Harman is survived by daughters Gladys, Muriel, Nora, Betty, Jean, Margaret, Shirley and Lois; sons Merlin, Bob and Bill; stepchildren Jim and Bill and many grandchildren. He was predeceased by a son Don.

Rev. Dan Filyer conducted the funeral service, June 20 from the Stouffville Missionary Church. Pall-bearers were grandsons Blair Clarkson, Mel Tindall, Sam Brown, Michael Maynard, Donald Harman and Mark Harman. Flower-bearers were John Tunney, Jeff McCurdy and Frank McKay.

Family members paid tribute to their father. "He was a fantastic father and grandfather. The children, from the oldest to the youngest adored him. He was a great communicator. He could talk to anyone. He loved people and never spoke unkindly of anyone. He'll be greatly missed by all his family and many friends."
