

Honors go to A-plus students

Graduation ceremonies were held at several Whitchurch-Stouffville public schools last week, including Summitview. Academic Letters are held by (left to right) Jason Reesor, Michael Henriques and Todd Gilham.

Ballantree Public School's Grade 8 graduation class had not one but four valedictorians. Speakers were (left to right) Debbie Sansom, Rhonda Tatone, Nicole McCann and Natalie Reid. The ceremony was held June 23.

Limousines were not uncommon Thursday night as Grade 8 graduates travelled in style to their respective schools. Shanyn Burnett's chauffeur is her uncle Bob Stevens. Shanyn graduated from Summitview.

Leslie Palmer, a Grade 8 graduate from Orchard Park, was honored (several times Thursday). Here she receives the Keith Sutherland Award from Scott Sutherland, son of the school's former principal.

Orchard Park's Jomo Hendrickson of Elm Road, Stouffville, has his name engraved on the Grade 7 History plaque. Mrs. Moureen Terhine, in whose name the award is given made the presentation at a Jr. Assembly Friday.

Thirteen-year-old Kevin Nichols, Alderwood Street, Stouffville, won the Richardson Award for General Proficiency Orchard Park staff teacher Barbara J. Wideman made the presentation June 23.
