

Awards galore at '88 Festival

Many deserving people were honored at Whitchurch-Stouffville's 1988 Strawberry Festival including Jean Barkey, (right), the Town's 'Citizen of the Year'. Here Jean receives an engraved Crest from Mayor Fran Sainsbury.

Gormley's Howard Burkholder, (right), is Whitchurch-Stouffville's 'Sports Personality of the Year'. Howie was presented with an engraved plaque, June 29, by Stouffville Sun editor Jim Mason.

Jane Anderson was one of ten entries in the Miss Whitchurch-Stouffville Pageant, June 29. Her sponsor was 'The Wedding Room' of Stouffville. In her sports clothing promenade, Jane chose the role of a ball player and was a home run hit with fans.

"Is it really me?" exclaims 20-year-old Melinda Lehman, Vanzant Court, Stouffville, as the announcement is made of her selection as Whitchurch-Stouffville's Festival queen. Melinda's a 3rd year student at York University, Toronto.

Lovely Christine Dubé, Ninth Line, North, Whitchurch-Stouffville, commences her final walk as Festival queen '87. Christine crowned her successor, Melinda Lehman, Vanzant Court, Stouffville, at the Pageant's conclusion, June 29.

Ralph Spademan, (right), was honored at Festival '88 for his work in promoting recycling in Whitchurch-Stouffville. Mr. Spademan was presented with a framed painting by Doug Hlickman, President of the Town's Recycling program.

'Meet All', a golden retriever, and Grand Champion of the 1988 Festival Pet Show Saturday. All successfully defended the championship won last year. His owner is Marion Gray, Lakeshore Road, Musselman's Lake. Jim Thomas
