'Girl Next Door'
Andrea appreciates her 'heaven on earth'

By JIM THOMAS
 PRESTON LAKE — Heaven on earth, that in brief describes the residence of Andrea Doucette, 16, of Gormley. She can relax in a spacious backyard or take a dip in nearby Preston Lake, the choice is hers. Her parents, David and Elizabeth Doucette, purchased the property two years ago. Previously, they lived on Cherry Street (Vivian) Markham and in Quebec. Andrea's our 'Girl Next Door'.
 "Maybe I don't appreciate it as much as I should," says the pleasant 16-year-old student of Stouffville High. She admits she'd like it even better if there were other girls on the street (Connaught Avenue) her age. "Still, the people here are nice," she states.
 Andrea has a younger sister, Susan, 13. She attends St. Whitechurch Highlands. Prior to entering Grade 9, Andrea was enrolled in three different elementary schools: Wm. Armstrong and Franklin Street, Markham; then Ballantyne Academically. The adjustment wasn't difficult. However, she disliked the break-up of friendships.
 Following graduation, she hopes to take a course related to writing, perhaps journalism. French is a favorite subject. She was a member of the high school choir, the Spirit Club and band. She plays the clarinet.
 Andrea enjoys cooking. She and sister Susan share a Tribune newspaper route.
 Andrea's appreciative of support provided by her parents. "They've pointed me in the right direction," she states. She also has good things to say about boyfriend Jerry Shields, a student entering Grade 13. She describes him as "kind and considerate."
 This summer, Andrea hopes to work in her father's sales marketing office. No extended holiday trips are planned. However, next summer, the family hopes to vacation in England, and visit the neighborhood where her dad grew up as a boy.

Sixteen-year-old Andrea Doucette, Connaught Avenue, Preston Lake, will enter Grade 11 at Stouffville Dist. Secondary when the fall term resumes. Her home is a veritable heaven on earth with resort activities only a short distance away.
