Early morning 'alarm clock'

Residents protest pit noise

MUSSELMAN'S LAKE — Residents of Hillsdale Drive, Musselman's Lake, don't appreciate noise caused by gravel trucks and a screening machine at 5:30 in the morning.

Complaints related to the hours of operation at Chefero Sand and Gravel Ltd., Ninth Line North, have been forwarded to Town Bylaw Enforcement Official Bruce Arrowsmith.

Mr. Chefero explained the early morning start is necessary to beat the rush-hour traffic into Toronto. Drivers, he said, are back for their second loads when traffic is at its worst.

The pit operator wishes to continue loading trucks at 5:30 a.m., but has agreed not to use the screening plant until 6:30.

Mr. Arrowsmith hopes to arrange a meeting between company officials and adjacent home-owners in an effort to resolve the problem.
