

The three top stars for the Stouffville Missionary Church League team sported smiles following the game Friday night. From left are: Harold Wideman, who pitched a five hitter, and gave up one unearned run in the 2-1 victory over Grace; Norm Wideman hit a double which started a winning rally, and Arman Stover, who stole home with the winning run in the sixth.

Arman's a chip off block

Arman Stover is a chip off the old block. The heads-up second baseman is the son of Bob Stover, who played at second for the old Stouffville Cardinals of the late 1950s and early '60s.

And Arman's theft of home in the sixth inning stole the show Friday night at Victoria Square. The steal gave the Stouffville Missionary Church a come-from-behind 2-1 victory over Grace Associated Gospel Church in Christian Men's League play.

He was also the pivot man in a deftly-executed double play in the top of the sixth that would have made the elder Stover beam with pride.

Stouffville spent the whole game trying to come back after giving up an unearned run to the Grace club in the first inning. They were held hitless through the first three innings by Grace pitcher Mike Baber, but started to show signs of life in the fourth.

Wally Robinson singled and Harold Wideman and Stover walked, but Stouffville couldn't bring any of them in.

They threatened in the fifth as well, with Dennis Alsop reaching first on an error, and Bruce Stapley hitting a single with none out. But Baber retired the next three batters.

Norm Wideman led off the sixth with a solid double. Craig Hynes walked, as did Stover, to load the bases with nobody out. Wideman scored when Darren McCool hit into a fielder's choice. Stover came to third and made his move soon after.

Pitcher Baber was slow to react when a throw from the catcher bounced off his glove and rolled away. Stover hesitated for a second, then streaked home, sliding safely under the tag.

"The pitcher was just taking his time — he was just sauntering after the ball," said Stover after the game. "I thought I could make it."

Stouffville was held to just three hits on the night, while Wideman gave up five safeties to the Grace team, striking out four.
