

Pretty wedding at Springvale

Mr. and Mrs. James Conner prepare to cut the wedding cake following their marriage, Saturday in Springvale Baptist Church. The bride is the former Rosanne Houghton, daughter of Glen and Lucille Houghton, Dickson's Hill and Beth Cormier of Stouffville. The groom is the son of Neil and Marg Conner, R.R. 2, Stouffville. Rev. Robert Flemming conducted the ceremony with special music by Clarion Baker; Kris and Val Hoover. The reception followed in the lower auditorium of Springvale Church.

Editor's Mail

"Have a heart"

Dear Editor:

I was outraged when I read the article on Page 1 of The Tribune, (Aug. 10), under the heading "Bylaw thwarts corn grower".

Here we have a 16-year-old boy with some ambition in his life and what happens? He's harassed by our Town Bylaw Enforcement Department who claim it contravenes the bylaw and they were responding to a complaint.

Big deal! I've been complaining for some time about a Bed and Breakfast operation on a residential street where I live and the only response I receive from Town officials is "our hands are tied".

At least Scott Paisley is keeping himself busy and out of trouble. Maybe, Mr. Complainant, you'd like it better if Scott was throwing loud parties on his rented lot like the one reported by The Tribune in the same Aug. 10 issue. Maybe Mr. Complainant, you'd rather see beer and liquor bottles lying about the ground rather than corn husks.

Wise up! Maybe our Town would rather Scott act like some other teens who run afoul of the law; have no respect for their parents or their homes; walk aimlessly about with nothing but time on their hands and hell bent on destruction; their own and others.

Come on folks! At least Scott is attempting to make something of himself. He pays rent for his market site. But is that enough. No sir. The Town wants Scott to pay $600 just to apply for a temporary re-zoning order. Heck Scott, you were packing away too much money anyway! I can only guess you were wondering what to do with the extra $600 burning a hole in your pocket!

I say the Town can issue a temporary re-zoning order for a more reasonable amount. We don't have a big-shot businessman here. Scott is only 16 although he probably acts more mature than some adults. Instead of trying to thwart Scott's efforts, we all should be standing behind him and applauding his efforts.

When you have a teenager showing some ambition, we should pave the way towards making it easier for him, not harder.

I only hope this experience does not leave a bad taste in his mouth; that he gives up when he's only just begun.

I wish to add in closing that I've never met Scott. I do not know him personally. But I too have a 16-year-old son who I wish had been given the opportunity to be a corn grower with four separated plots. Maybe some things would have turned out differently.

Good luck Scott. I hope people out there wake and and you won't need it.

Sincerely,

Lynda Fockler, Stouffville
