Dorothy Timbers

Lifetime resident dead at 81

STOUFFVILLE — Rev. Grant Sloss conducted the service, Aug. 15, from the O'Neill Funeral Home, Stouffville, for Mrs. Fred Timbers following her passing Aug. 12 in Parkview Home. She'd been a resident there five years.

Mrs. Timbers, the former Dorothy Irene Hood, was born in Whitchurch Twp., April 12, 1907, the eldest of four in the family of George and May Hood.

Following her marriage, Dec. 5, 1928 in Lemonville United Church, she and husband Fred took up residence on the 7th Concession of Whitchurch Twp., (McCowan Road), where they continued to live until 1965 when the property was sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Timbers moved to a home on Main Street East, Stouffville, then to Parkview.

Mr. Timbers predeceased his wife in 1984.

All members of her family were born on the 7th Concession. She was intensely proud of each one — daughter Ruth Clarke of Vineland; sons George of Stouffville and Carl, R.R. 4, Stouffville. She dearly loved her eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Surviving also are three brothers — Clarence Hood of Beaverton; Herb Hood of Islington and Aylmer Hood of Stouffville.

Church association was important to Mrs. Timbers. In earlier years, she attended at Dickson's Hill United Missionary Church and later, after moving to town the Stouffville Christian Church.

As a young girl, she sang in church choirs and later taught Sunday School.

Whether for her family or a neighbor, Mrs. Timbers was always ready and willing to lend a helping hand. Becky Timbers, a granddaughter touched on these personal remembrances in the eulogy read at the funeral service.

Pall-bearers were six grandsons — Eric Timbers, Mark Timbers, Greg Clarke, Michael Hotson, Clarion Hood and Charles Mashinter.

Interment was made at Dickson's Hill Cemetery.

Annual picnic here

STOUFFVILLE — The Scarborough Spirit Baton and Drum Corps held their annual picnic Aug. 7 in the Stouffville Memorial Park.

The afternoon was made all the more enjoyable due to the Corps' recent success in competition at South Bend, Indiana. The Spirit won one World and two Grand World Championships.

The three trophies were on display.

Corps members range in age from three to twenty years. Their instructor is Margie Taylor.

Members and their parents have been coming to Stouffville for the past three years.

"The Park here has everything," Mrs. Taylor said, "it suits people of all ages."

Summer wedding

George Davies and Susan Wilson were married recently at Cedar Beach in Musselman's Lake. Susan is the daughter of David and Audrey Wilson, R.R. 3, Stouffville, and George is the son of Verna and Audrey Davies, Cedar Beach. The bride's matron of honor was Pam McKinnley. Bridesmaids included Lisa Wilson, Vicki Bachlow and Nancy Bogart-Franzen. Best man was Bill Rinzma. After a honeymoon at Deerhurst Inn, the couple are residing at R.R. 3, Stouffville.
