

Seven young people participated in the 4-H Plowing Coaching Clinic and tractor Sunday at Bob Pritzker's farm in Lemoyneville. Here, club members and helpers watch as Jenny Pritzker takes her turn plowing.

Straight as an arrow: Jenny Pritzker uses the stake to check out a furrow.

4-H plowing contest challenges youngsters

How did it do? Tammy Yake watches closely as Herb Jarvis examines her work. Herb was one of eight coaches on hand to help out.

4-H Club member John Morrison (seated on the tractor) of Stoutville listens to some words of advice from veteran plowman Olyan Corvyn, also of Stoutville. Both were taking part in the recent 4-H plowing competition.

