

Quite at home

Stouffville life is pleasant to her

By JIM THOMAS

STOUFFVILLE — For 19-year-old Suzanne Powell, 366 Elm Road, Stouffville, is 'home away from home'.

And everybody's happy. Suzanne, a student enrolled at the University of Guelph, had occasion to meet Richard Piette, also a student there.

Two residences went horseback riding, Suzanne recalls. She caught Richard's eye and he caught hers. She asked him out and he asked her home.

While the scenario didn't occur in so rapid a succession, the end result has Suzanne spending the summer in Stouffville and employed on the staff of Green Gables Manor, Bloomington.

Born in St. Catharines, her parents moved to Chatham and then to St. John's, Newfoundland. Mr. and Mrs. Powell have since relocated in Windsor.

Suzanne will commence her second year in a Child Studies Major.

An extremely personable girl, Suzanne has her Grade 8 piano and plays beautifully. She was a member of the St. John's Rowing Club. Volleyball's a favorite university sport.

She speaks French fluently.

On her return to Guelph, she'll serve as a residents' assistant, a position of responsibility.

"I enjoy planning activities," she says.

At the crossroads of either a teaching or nursing career, Suzanne's enjoying her time spent at Green Gables.

"Hands-on care of seniors is important to me," she explains.

A graduate of Prince of Wales Collegiate, St. John's, Suzanne admits she was anxious to return to Ontario — "to the area where I grew up."

Guelph University student Suzanne Powell is enjoying her summer in the Stouffville area. She is working a Green Gables Manor for the summer and is staying with Piette family. Although a graduate of high school in St. John's, Newfoundland, Suzanne wants to stay in Ontario where she spent her earlier years. — Jim Thomas
