

Uxbridge celebrated some of the old-fashioned things in life during Steam Threshing Days at Quaker Hill Museum last weekend. Here, Carl Fleicher, R.R. 1, Mount Albert, really takes a shine to one of his two cars on display. This one's a Model 'A' Ford. —Brent Lowery

Above, Edie Garruthers is seen revving up his 1920s Robert Bell Tractor used in part to cut shingles for houses. Below, these two lads know it's a lot more fun to play in the hay than to thresh it.

Step into the past at Uxbridge show

Murray Kennedy shows off a grain grinder that was made in 1929. The grinder's owner is Frank Beach of Siloam.

Left, Uxbridge's grand champion doer reared in the 1940s. The picture is now 40 years old. Below, cars gear up for the show.