Trade show goes hosts a treat

There was something of interest for all ages as Whitchurch-Stouffville's business community showcased its products last week at the Rec Centre. Here, Mayor Fran Sandsbury provides Rod Assinck with a lesson in local history.

Bea Jennings, Rose Avenue, Stouffville, modelled for Josephine's of Main Street.

Michael Rook, Keith Lobyer and Seth Rook, Millard Street, Stouffville, enjoyed a make-believe ride on a John Deere lawn tractor exhibited by Hutchinson Farm Supplies.

Denny Alson's sleek Corvette attracted much attention. The car was made to look even better with pretty Kim Gretton behind the wheel.
