'Girl Next Door'

A teaching career in Brenda's future

By JIM THOMAS
GOODWOOD — A few short years from now, an elementary school, perhaps in Uxbridge Twp., could be the beneficiary of Brenda May's love for children.

The teaching profession is definitely Brenda's career choice. She has the U.S.S. Co-op Program to thank for this decision.

"I was assigned a Grade 1 at Uxbridge Public School and really enjoyed it," says the personable, eighteen-year-old. "That's when I made up my mind."

She's our "Girl Next Door".

Brenda resides on the 4th Conc. of Uxbridge, daughter of Ron and Jean May. She has an older brother Steve, enrolled at Lakehead University, Thunder Bay.

Brenda enjoyed an excellent Grade 12 year at Uxbridge High, obtaining a June average of over 80 percent. Social Science is a favorite subject.

She's hoping to maintain this standing, maybe win an Ontario Scholarship.

She expresses excitement over the spirit energized by the 1988-89 students' council. She feels president Jennifer Harding deserves much of the credit.

Extra-curricular activities enjoyed by Brenda include — pro-walking, downhill-skiing and travelling.

She spends as much time at the family cottage near Haliburton as possible.

VISIT NEW YORK

During the March 'break', she and her mother hope to visit New York City.

"My mother and I are very close," she says.

This summer, Brenda served as assistant coach for a Goodwood T-Ball team of boys and girls. Coaches were her uncle, Frank Barnes and Ted Morton.

"I loved it," she states.

Eighteen-year-old Brenda May of R.R. 1, Goodwood, is in her final year at Uxbridge Secondary School. Following graduation, she plans to go on to university and later obtain her teaching certificate from the Ontario College of Education. — Jim Thomas
