

New flower shop 'blooms' in Mall

A new flower shop has opened in Stouffville Place Mall, Main Street, West Stouffville. Monaco Florist became official Thursday with the cutting of a red ribbon by Town Mayor Fran Sainsbury. Later, the owner, Ilina Visconti, (left) presented Mayor Sainsbury with a bouquet of red roses.

Teachers all-important

Dear Editor:
I'm not personally associated with St. Mark's School or the Catholic education system, but The Tribune's lead story, (Sept. 14), interested me.

I believe staff and parents have a legitimate complaint if facilities within the school are inadequate, (library, gymnasium, washrooms, etc.). However, I lose patience with people who look on portables as "second class."

It's a teacher that makes a classroom, not the room itself. Some of my daughter's best years in public school were spent in portables. Her teachers were marvellous.

In contrast, some of my daughters' most disappointing years were spent in standard classes. Her teachers were instruction provided within. Sincerely, (Mrs.) Shirley Cheng,

Booth Drive,
Stouffville

Attacked by dog

UXBRIDGE — An Uxbridge Twp. lady had a frightening experience recently when attacked by a dog suspected of rabies.

Sharon McCullough, Conc. 5, said two canines, "both reeking of skunk scent", came on her property.

Before she could coax them into the barn, the larger animal lunged towards her. Fortunately, she wasn't bitten.

After locking them up and standing guard over her stallion with a gun, Mrs. McCullough called police. The investigating officer advised her to contact Ann Barrett, the township's canine control officer. Mrs. Barrett picked both dogs up Monday morning.

Mrs. McCullough, an admitted lover of animals, says she's especially wary of dogs after her son, 4, was attacked by one several months ago and suffered severe gashes to his face requiring plastic surgery.

She described that experience as "a horror".
