

Fairest babies of Markham

Markham girl Grand Champion

Victoria McKenzie Campbell, 7½-month-old daughter of Colin and Margaret Campbell, Sherwood Forest Drive, Markham, is the 1988 Grand Champion baby of Markham Fair. Happy Victoria was crowned Saturday by Fair Queen Laina Oad. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, natives of Northern Ireland, have an older son, Colin, six. "We're ecstatic about it," the proud mother said. When it was suggested they have a million-dollar family, Mrs. Campbell jokingly replied, "All we're missing is the million." Colin and Margaret have lived in Markham since 1980. They never miss the Fair. Colin was also a Baby Show entry at 13 months.

Stouffville boy Reserve Champion

That's my kid brother, says four-year-old Christopher Loughlin, pointing to five-month-old Timothy Garry, the Reserve Grand Champion baby at Markham Fair. Christopher and Timothy are the children of Wayne and Mary Lynn Loughlin, 260 Blair Road, Stouffville. They moved to town from Agincourt three years ago. "More or less just for fun," Mrs. Loughlin replied when asked why they entered handsome Timothy. "Second out of six—we're thrilled to say the least," she said. Mr. Loughlin accompanied Timothy on stage. "Mothers get a lot of glory," explained Mary Lynn. "It took five of us to have him, so why not share other things as well." Some Christopher was a semi-finalist in a baby contest sponsored by Boots Drug Store of Agincourt. —Jim Thomas
