A wheelbarrow full of puffball
 It would take a large-size pan to fry this giant 'Street Stouffville' on the property of John Dike, puffball. The mushroom-like plant was R.R. 2, Markham. It boasted a circumference discovered by David Reesor of Burkholder of 65 inches. — Jim Thomas

Rap selfish parkers

Dear Editor:
 At long last our elected politicians have decided to add some teeth to a bylaw that's been lying dormant.

This is indicated in two articles published recently in a Toronto newspaper. One was headlined: 'Fines Double For Drivers Who Disobey Parking Signs' (Sept. 16, 1988). The other read: 'Swiping Space From Disabled Driver Gets Costly' (Sept. 20, 1988).

Then there's always the young lady, just because her car has 'handicapped plates', parks in the reserved spot to run in for a coffee, even though there are empty spaces elsewhere.

I personally am sick and tired of watching people just 'drop into a store', leaving the motor running with kids in the car, (which in itself shows the kind of mentality we're dealing with), or the father pulling into a handicapped space with his young son in the car and the parking lot half empty. A great role model to be sure!

It'll be more than pleased to volunteer a couple of hours a week to issue summonses. It'll be interesting to see how long it takes our Town to react to this bylaw.

Sincerely,
 John H. MacInnis,
 R.R. 2, Stouffville
