

School celebrates Harvest Day

It was Harvest Day Festival at Stouffville Christian School Friday with Kindergarten to Grade 6 pupils taking part including Martha Wilson (left) and Elizabeth Simmonds, both nine, and in Grade 4.

Ten-year-old Brianna Lake, Grade 5, adjusts the bonnet worn by Kindergarten pupil Meagan Crowder. Several teachers joined in the Festival. It's an annual event.

While attractive long dresses posed some problems, But Anne Pugh (left) and Rachael Ancheril persevered for a day. Anne and Rachael are both nine and in Grade 4.

On the 100th anniversary of the Ontario Historical Society Rachel Lewis of Stouffville was honored by Cathy Pebraro Young, Ontario Co-ordinator. Rachel's Special Design Button was selected in a contest sponsored by the OHS.

Opponent of Sunday shopping commended

A brief note to your shopping newspaper to congratulate town Not only did Mr. Card's recent business address attract national attention but he said what needed to be said. In my opinion, the Peterson Government is neglecting its duty by sluffing off this all-important issue on the individual municipalities.

(Mrs.) Kathryn Warren, Stouffville
