Church celebrates 125 years

Next Sunday is sure to be a memorable day in the life of the congregation of Greenwood United Church.

They will celebrate the church's 125th anniversary with special services at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

The building is 60 years old. The celebration will extend throughout the afternoon.

Schedule of events follows: Rev. W.B. Thornloe of Victoria Park United Church will bring the message at the morning worship. Choir members past and present will provide the special music. A luncheon will follow in the church hall.

At 2 p.m., the Drama Group will rekindle memories with a short production. A slide presentation by Betty Pegg will start at three, all in the former Greenwood School, now a Public Library.

A light supper will be served in the church hall at 5:30 p.m., followed by evening worship at 7:30. This service will take the form of a Christian Family Celebration highlighted by vocal and instrumental selections.

Family and friends of Marjorie and Don Hedges gathered Sunday at the Claremont Masonic Hall on Sunday to celebrate the couple's 50th wedding anniversary. Shown here from left are, daughter Rosemary Hedges, Marjorie and Don (who were married Oct. 8, 1938) and son Ron Hedges and his wife Marie. All are residents of Claremont.
