

Stan Attersley (above) is the new president of the Claremont and District Community Association. The election of officers and directors was held Oct. 12. Mr. Attersley resides on Central Street. The dual role of vice-president and secretary-treasurer is the responsibility of Jane Johnston, Wixon Street.

Directors are — Bob Nemish, George Johnson, Leo Samarillo, Allen Graham, Patti-Lynn Card, Karsten Smith, Lori Roy and Margaret Blackford. The immediate past-president is Bob Nemish. He held the position two years. Nineteen members attended Wednesday's meeting in the Masonic Hall.

School to elect new PM

The Town of Pickering will soon have a new mayor but Claremont Public School is electing a prime minister!

A student council, established along the lines of the Canadian parliamentary system, involves boys and girls from Grade 5 through Grade 8.

Staff organizers are David Reid and Chril Wilhelm.

A leadership convention was held Oct. 18. The election is scheduled for Oct. 25.

In addition to a prime minister, the students will choose Ministers of Finance, Recreation and Communications. Twelve MPs will sit on the various committees.

"With a federal election coming up soon, the timing is perfect," Mr. Reid said.

New Claremont ReMax office

ReMax Canaan Land Realty Inc. has opened a new office in downtown Claremont.

The location is 5019 Old Brock Road.

On Thursday, Oct. 27, Brian and Jackie Wright and staff will host an Open House for real estate representatives.

They'll roll out the welcome mat between 4 and 8 p.m.

The Victorian-styled building, costing in excess of $300,000, boasts 3,000 square feet of office space on three levels.

Six business people can be accommodated at the Claremont site, serving an area that includes Stouffville, Uxbridge, Scarborough and Claremont.

Mr. Wright, the ReMax broker-owner along with wife Jackie, specializes in country properties. They also have an office in Brooklin.

Licence approved

A liquor license has been approved for Sara's Kountry Kitchen in Claremont.

The application, heard Oct. 6 in Oshawa, was not opposed.

Sara Scott, the restaurant's manager, hopes to have the service available in two weeks. Beer and wine will be served.

Mrs. Scott acquired the business in February. The licence application was placed before the board in May.

'Happy warrior' seeks seat

John Roberts, the much-travelled former MP in the Trudeau Cabinet, has entered the 1988 federal election fray.

He's the Liberal candidate in Ontario Riding, a seat currently held by Progressive Conservative Scott Fennell, R.R. 1, Ashburn.

Roberts, a one-time MP in the riding that included Whitechurch-Stouffville, defeated Greg Joy, a 1976 Olympic silver medalist at a nomination meeting Thursday night.

The Conservative candidate to replace Mr. Fennell is Ajax Councillor Rene Soetens. Jim Wiseman is carrying the banner for the NDP.

Roberts regards himself as "a happy warrior, glad to be back in the battle again."

Oktoberfest evening

Claremont 4-Seasons is hosting an Oktoberfest evening, Saturday, Oct. 22.
