Male choir to visit Heise Hill

By EVELYN MILSTED GORMLEY — The Male Voice Choir from the Niagara district will present a sacred music concert in Heise Hill Church this Sunday, (Nov. 6), at 6:45 p.m. Baby Alexandra Moreau has been released from Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto. Rev. and Mrs. Peter Gibbins attended a Women's Alive Couples Conference in Toronto on the weekend.

The sale is reported of the Norm Carrington house, also the former Campey home. Mrs. Martha Wideman spent a week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Sider of Wainfleet. The congregation of Gormley Missionary Church will mark their 115th anniversary with a weekend celebration Nov. 12 and 13. Rev. Lloyd Fretz of Sarnia will be the guest speaker on the Sunday with special music by soloist John Hisey.

Hospital bazaar

The Uxbridge Cottage Hospital Auxiliary is holding its annual bazaar Saturday, Nov. 5 in the lower auditorium of Trinity United Church.

Church anniversary guest

The congregation of Stouffville United Church celebrated an anniversary milestone, Sunday with a special morning service and potluck dinner at its conclusion. Rev. Wayne Reid, (right), the church's pastor, was pleased to welcome to the pulpit, The Very Rev. Clarke MacDonald, Past Moderator of the United Church of Canada. —Jim Thomas

Long-time PC member

Former York North MPP Bill Hodgson, who represented areas of Whitechurch-Stouffville for 18 years, has died of cancer at his Kettleby home. He was 76. Mr. Hodgson spent more than 35 years in public service in York Region, working in various capacities and building a solid political career.

He represented York North for the Progressive Conservatives from 1967 to 1985, when he was defeated by Liberal Greg Sorbara. In York Region, he will be remembered for his work in establishing Newmarket's provincial courthouse and for garnering provincial funds for the much-needed Hwy 404.

Funeral services for Mr. Hodgson were held Saturday at York Pines United Church in Kettleby. He was buried nearby at Kettleby Cemetery. He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Eliza, and his children Bob, David, Beth MacLellan and Janice Auld. He also has nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
