Clipper Pee Wees wrestle 2-2 tie in close penalty-marred contest

The action was fast and furious, and some solid and not-so-solid body checks were plentiful as the Stouffville Pee Wee Clippers wrestled Bowmanville to a 2-2 draw at the Recreation Centre last Monday.

In all, 23 penalties were dished out, all minors, as the intensity escalated throughout the game.

And despite numerous power play opportunities for both sides, the score remained knotted through the final 14 minutes of the third period.

Bowmanville carried the play in the first period, but were only able to emerge with a 1-0 lead. A spectacular glove save by goalie Greg Sanford on a breakaway kept Stouffville in the game early in the second frame.

Then it was the Clippers' turn to apply the pressure, and they finally tied it up thanks to a classic effort by Lee Wideman.

Wideman fought his way down the right side, eluding three opponents as he finally cut in front of the net all alone. He flicked a quick wrist shot into the right side of the goal, with a Bowmanville defender hanging on.

Stouffville maintained its offensive thrust through the end of the period, but failed to capitalize.

Darren Zellers put the Clippers ahead early in the third stanza on a determined goal-mouth stand that saw him take three whacks at the puck before it found its way into the net.

But the visitors came right back to square things, and came close to taking the lead seconds later, but Clipper goalie Steve Servinis came up aces to maintain the tie.

Both teams had great scoring opportunities throughout the period, with Stouffville hitting a goal post on a power play, with less than two minutes left.

Clippers Coach Don Reesor, who led the Atoms to the Ontario championships last season, was pleased with the result.

"It was a good game. Our players are still getting their feet wet this early in the season," said Reesor.

Despite the high penalty count, he believed the referees called a good game.

"It's always better to keep on top of things like that rather than let things get out of hand," he noted.

But he was diplomatic about predicting any miracles for the 1988 Atom Clippers squad.

"We'll get what we deserve," Reesor said.

Alison saves the day for Bowling Centre

Alison MacDonald scored with just four seconds left in the game to give the Stouffville Bowling Centre girls hockey team a two all tie with the MPH Earthmoving team.

Lauren Clarkson, assisted by Jennifer MacDonald and Sheri Bearden, scored midway through the first period to give the Bowling Centre a 1-0 lead. Goalie Dawn Williamson made several outstanding saves to keep the Earthmoving team off the score board.

Late in the third period with 3:28 remaining, Tavannah Herman, assisted by Shyla Brennan scored with 1:50 left in the game to give her team a short-lived lead.

In the other Atom game the George Ross Photo team continued their scoring spree as they downed Bunnies 13 to 1.

Patricia Davies got the one goal for Bunnies, with Laura Winters-tein picking up the assist.

Summitview takes second

The Summitview Junior Boys team grabbed second place in their division at the Area F Cross Country meet at the Markham Fairgrounds last week.

The team, made up of Roger McMann, Stephan Kerr, Bryan Mallinson and Andrew Fockler, placed second to William Armstrong Public School which ended up winning the overall category at the Grade 4-6 meet.

The Stouffville area individual performers were Billy Wray, Summitview, second, TYKE BOYS; Adam Marsden Orchard Park, third, SENIOR BOYS; Roger McMann, Summitview, fourth, JUNIOR BOYS; Trevor Batdell, Summitview, fourth, SENIOR BOYS; Claire Kerr, Summitview, a fourth, TYKE GIRLS; Graham Crowder, Dixon Hill, fifth, JUNIOR BOYS; Michael Green, Dixon Hill, sixth, INTERMEDIATE BOYS; David Leigh, Dixon Hill, seventh, TYKE BOYS; Dan Holden, Summitview, eighth, SENIOR BOYS; Jessica Howard, Dixon Hill, eighth, ATOM GIRLS; Amanda French, Dixon Hill, ninth, JUNIOR GIRLS; Nigel Griffin, Summitview, ninth, TYKE BOYS; Stephen Kerr, Summitview, ninth, JUNIOR BOYS; Kim Lloyd, Dixon Hill, 10th, JUNIOR GIRLS; Cameron Hazel, Orchard Park, 10th, ATOM BOYS; Ryan Jefferson, Summitview, 10th, INTERMEDIATE BOYS.
