Shame on me!

Dear Editor:

The yellow box on Page 1 of Wednesday's Tribune was most unfair, both to local residents and to voters.

We look to your newspaper for fair and honest coverage, but your rating of the candidates did everyone a disservice. What did you base your ratings on?

We're looking for insights as to honest commitment, beliefs, issues. The polished public speakers are not necessarily those whose honesty, knowledge and integrity will serve us all best in Council.

We are still a semi-rural community.

How about a rating from you, for starters, as to the candidates' past contributions to this (or another) community; on what committee's they've served; on what projects they've helped? What have they done so far to try and better life in Whitchurch-Stouffville? Fact, please, facts!

Incidentally, shame on me also for being so quick to offer brickbats and not the bouquets you so often deserve.

Sincerely,
Jean Edwards,
Stouffville

Friends meet

The Friendship Club will meet in the Stouffville Legion Hall on Thurs., Nov. 17 at 8 p.m.

Persons requiring transportation are asked to call Marion Murphy at 640-2443.

Speed project

The speed with which the Downtown Improvement Project has progressed has amazed even Stouffville's 'sidewalk superintendents'. Under favorable weather conditions, this phase of the work could be completed in another week. The Barr Construction Co. of Brampton has the contract. Here, Blair Emmerson of Stouffville operates a backhoe near the intersection of Main and Edward Streets.

Craft show of the year

MARKHAM — Another Country Decorating and Collectible Show and Sale, organized and sponsored by Debra Grose-Russell, R.R. 4, Uxbridge, is returning to Markham Fairgrounds this month.

The dates are Saturday, Nov. 19 and Sunday, Nov. 20.

Due to the success of last year's exhibit and the enthusiasm displayed by visitors, the hours have been extended. These are 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday; 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Admission is $3.00 adults; $2.00 for children under twelve.

More than 80 exhibitors have been allocated space. Crowds in excess of 15,000 are expected.

Displays by country crafters from Stouffville and area follow:

Pat and Graham Beaton of 'The Gooseberry Patch', Sandford; Sandra Stronach of 'Freckles', Main Street, Stouffville; Jennifer Wells of 'Gaasination Custom Stained Glass', Pefferlaw; Shannon Smillie of 'Shabrya Custom Country Lamps', Uxbridge; John Huddert of 'Country Mercantile Fine Gifts', Uxbridge and Kaaren Johnston of 'Kaaren Johnston's Folk Art Studio', Uxbridge.

Several Country Decorating Workshops are planned throughout the afternoon and evening, Nov. 19 and from 11 a.m. through 4 p.m., Nov. 20.
