Fast talkers

Diane Francis makes local appearance

Coming soon to the Markham Library is author Diane Francis. Her latest book, Contrepreneurs is an expose of white collar crime in Canada. She'll talk about her book when she visits the library on Monday, Nov. 28 at 7:30 p.m. Some of the crimes she elaborates on in her book include, money laundering, stock market manipulation and telephone sales on phony stock. She'll also discuss the research that went into it. Free tickets for the talk are available at the library and at Green Gables Book Store in Markham.

Sandor Tandory

Sandor Tandory's paintings have been described by Jack Shadbolt as "very closely attached to the drawing process. They come from authentic and real experience - a simple matrix". Shadbolt mentions "his meticulous attention to detail and carefully applied watercolour with very controlled and elaborate technique".

Sandor's paintings of Markham, Unionville, Toronto and Kensington Market are exceptional. Many of his paintings are set in British Columbia, where he lived for many years, winning the Purchase Award there in 1980. The Archives Award at the Toronto Outdoor Exhibition was claimed by him in 1986.

Exhibition and Sale until Sunday, November 20th.
